

DEMOCRATIC STATE CONTEST IS CLOSE

AUTHORITY TO CALL SINCLAIR IS CHALLENGED

Counsel for Oil Magnate Resists Effort to Call Him Before Body Again

COMMITTEE UNDECIDED

Adjourns Session Without Acting on Protest Voiced By Mr. Littleton

Washington, March 21. The right of the oil committee to proceed with its inquiry into the leasing of Teapot Dome and related subjects was challenged today by counsel for Harry F. Sinclair when he returned to the White House after questioning about his possible relations to the dramatic disclosures of recent weeks.

Attorneys for the operator based their objection on the Walsh directing amendment of the oil leases. They pointed out that the resolution declared the leases were made under circumstances indicating fraud and corruption and said that if this be true the committee had to ascertain what it was directed to ascertain.

The committee adjourned without deciding whether Sinclair should be questioned.

In a long argument presented immediately after the witness was called to the stand Martin W. Littleton of the Sinclair counsel contended that by the resolution Congress not only had brought to an end the jurisdiction of the committee but had "defined the policy of the government that the oil shall be preserved for the government."

Pass On Validity

"You have passed upon the validity of these leases," Littleton said, "and as far as the legislative adjudication can be effective you have legislated the leases to be void and have legislatively imposed an injunction without regard to the property."

"You have established a policy of the government on this subject and anything you claim would be only a detail which would not warrant the further examination of my client in this matter."

"You not only say that the leases were void but the language you use is very broad and the policy you have established is very definite. You have declared the policy of this government is that the oil should be maintained in the ground as a reserve supply to meet a national emergency. You have thus discharged all the duties placed in your hands."

"What is it your committee is investigating that entitles it to take my client who has been here time and again with his books and papers and say 'You must testify further.' Have you any jurisdiction which entitles you to do so under the standards and precedents of the American government?"

Never Sustained

The right of the Congressional committees to call witnesses and papers from all over the country to aid in framing legislation, the attorney argued, never had been sustained by the courts.

"Has it ever been denied?" asked Senator Walsh, the committee prosecutor.

"No, but it has been questioned," was the reply.

There was a long colloquy between Littleton and the Senators as to the rights of Congressional committees to summon witnesses. Sinclair's counsel contended that the committee was "without any vestige of power."

"If your bill should prevail," said Senator Dill, Democrat, Washington, "this committee might as well close its doors and go to sleep."

"It should either quit or do its work in a constitutional fashion," replied Littleton.

"As I understand Mr. Littleton's position," said Senator Walsh, "it is that members of Congress are obligated for the purpose of informing themselves concerning contemplated legislation to depend upon the press, their talks with individuals and other voluntary information which anybody may be willing to give them but they cannot compel anybody to come before a committee and tell it the facts."

"Senator, your statement is factious," Littleton said.

"No, it is not," returned Senator Walsh. "It is a statement of argument."

Court Test Suggested

The argument grew more heated. Finally Senator Spencer, Republican, Missouri, suggested that the power of Congress to compel attendance of witnesses should be passed upon as quickly as possible. Littleton agreed but was unable to advance a method by which the question would be settled.

Calling attention that the government had brought suit in Wyoming against the Mammoth Oil Company in which fraud was charged against Sinclair this was another reason why his client should not be questioned further.

"He (Sinclair) is further charged in this bill (the government bill of complaint) with a conspiracy to defraud the government," Littleton said, adding that it was doubtful if Sinclair could be compelled to testify in a court because of that charge.

MISS STINSON!

Here is the first picture of Miss Roxie Stinson, divorced wife of the late Jesse Smith friend and confidant of Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty. Miss Stinson was the first witness called in the attorney general's hearing.

NORTH DAKOTA IMPROVING

"Looking Up" Says Federal Reserve Official

Fargo, N. D., Mar. 21.—North Dakota's agricultural problems parallel those of western Canada, Curtis L. Mosher of the Ninth Federal Reserve district bank told Fargo Rotarians at their regular weekly meeting Wednesday. He declared that the problems in this state are being met in much the same way, too, and chiefly by appealing to and aiding individual farmers.

Mr. Mosher regretted the defeat of the Norbeck-Burnetts bill. He complimented Dr. John Lee Coulter highly for his work in outlining the plan and for the work he has done in furthering diversification.

The $10,000,000 corporation for aiding banks of the northwest will be of material assistance in adjusting matters in the wheat growing states, he said.

The speaker declared that conditions are unusually promising at this time. There has been a great change toward optimism in the past two weeks, he said.

JOHN KILEY, AGED 69, DIES

Succumbs to Pneumonia After Short Illness

John W. Kiley, aged 69 years, died this morning at 8 o'clock in a hospital after a brief illness of pneumonia.

Mr. Kiley came to North Dakota in 1905 from Ohio, taking a homestead in Sheridan county, and has resided in Bismarck for about five years, since he retired from the farm. He was a member of the Foresters and St. Mary's Catholic church.

Surviving are the widow and eight children, Benjamin of Denhoff; Francis of Helena, Mont.; James of Bismarck and William of Grand Forks; Mrs. A. J. West of Sykeston; Mrs. D. E. O'Brien of Sykeston; Mrs. George Phynno of Denhoff and Miss Leona Kiley of Bismarck.

The hour for the funeral has not been determined.

FOUND DEAD UNDER TRUCK

Devils Lake, N. D., March 21.—Alfred S. Miller, implement dealer and standard oil agent at Penn, N. D., near here, was found dead under his overturned oil truck, in the ditch near Penn, by E. A. Toomey of Devils Lake, county coroner and undertaker. Toomey was returning to this city from Church Ferry. With the assistance of A. L. Sondall of Moorhead, Minn., who was driving with him, he removed Miller's body from under the truck.

It is thought the truck skidded into the ditch. Miller was badly cut about the face, but it is thought he died of suffocation.

He was a son of Louis H. Miller, Ramsey county pioneer, and was a member of the Elks and Masonic fraternity.

His widow and two children survive.

TWO FINED ON BOOZE CHARGE; CAR IS TAKEN

Edward Harding and E. W. Hall of Sterling were fined $15 and costs each by Police Magistrate W. C. Cashman yesterday on charges of being drunk and disorderly, preferred by Policemen William Ebeling who arrested them late at night. The police said they found in separate containers a half-gallon, quart and pint of home brew bought in Mandan by the pair.

After the police charge was disposed of William Welch, federal officer, stopped in and confiscated the Maxwell car they were driving on the ground that liquor was being transported in it.

NORMAL HALL IS DEDICATED

Pageant Given at Minot as Part of Celebration

Minot, N. D., Mar. 21.—The public reception and pageant at the Minot Normal last night opened the "three day exercises" commemorating the past decade of service by the institution and marking the formal dedication of the new west wing of the school, recently completed at a cost of approximately $100,000.

Students of the school escorted visitors through the institution on an inspection tour previous to the pageant of progress which will be given in the Normal gymnasium beginning at 2 p. m., with the departments of history, physical education, home economics, manual training and art and music cooperating.

Step by step the pageant depicted the progress of the school from the date of its founding to the present rapidly growing institution which it is today.

Two Former Presidents

Dr. A. G. Crane, former president of the school and now head of the state university of Wyoming and Professor W. F. Clark, also a former president of the Normal and now connected with the State Teachers college at Duluth, Minn., are scheduled to be in attendance at the ceremonies.

GIRL RECOVERS FROM WOUND

Fargo, N. D., Mar. 21.—Miss Gladys Lohr, a student of the Mayville, N. D., high school, is recovering in a Fargo hospital from an accidental revolver wound, sustained Sunday at the Mayville high school assembly room.

Several members of the junior class were at the school to straighten up the room, following a play, presented the night before. One of them was handling the revolver which went off, the bullet striking Miss Lohr in the shoulder and lodging in her neck.

BULLS RAID SHOP

London, March 21.—Two bulls; escaping from their driver, charged into a tobacconist's shop and scattered people in all directions. One of the bulls chewed several packs of tobacco. The other, seeing his reflection in a mirror, gazed at it for some time and then walked out of the shop. The tobacco chewer suffered no ill effects.

CUT $25,000 FROM SCHOOLS' BUDGET HERE

City Board Reduces Total Expenditures Planned For The Next Year

Members of the city school board, in session last night, took steps to effect economies in the operation of the city schools next year under a plan worked out by members of the board and school officials under which it was believed by the board members that the efficiency of the schools would not be impaired.

The board decided at the outset in the consideration of its deliberations on the subject that it would not seek to decrease teachers' salaries, believing that they are not too high under existing conditions and desiring to keep up a high standard in the city's schools.

Under the proposed plan $25,000 will be lopped off the city's school budget next year, reducing it from $138,000 to $113,000, the budget including the fixed charges for interest and sinking fund on bonds.

One of the steps taken by the board was to raise the tuition charge for non-resident pupils in the high school from $54 to $108 per year. The non-resident pupils in the high school tuition for grade school attendance was left at $50. The board was moved to raise the tuition in the high school, it was explained, because of the high cost of maintaining the school and because of the lack of room to take care of all pupils desiring admittance to the high school.

About 12 of the pupils in the high school come from outside the district. The cost per pupil is estimated at around $125 per year, so that the board in fixing the tuition at $108 felt it fixed the charge at less than actual cost. Since all expenses of the district are borne by the taxpayers living in it, it was felt by the board unfair to them to cause them to pay for an excessive number of non-resident pupils. The high school, too, is crowded so badly that pupils living within the district cannot be given the facilities desired.

To Reduce Number

It is expected by the board that the increase of the tuition for non-resident pupils will decrease the number in the high school. This will not only make it possible to give the local pupils better attention, in the board's view, but also will result in a reduction of three in the teaching forces. What three classes will be eliminated has not been decided.

The board, in its economy program, decided to discontinue the kindergartens next year, to abolish the department of physical training for women, there being one in charge of this training; to discontinue a music supervisor for the grades, abolish free lunch room in the grades and reduce salaries of janitors from $110 to $90 per month.

Music Action

In abolishing the position of supervisor of music in the grades, members of the board said that one qualified teacher in each building would supervise the music instruction in that building. Some years ago this was explained, there was a supervisor in penmanship, and this position was discontinued by the board, one teacher in each building being named to supervise penmanship. A teacher in each building also will supervise physical culture work for the girls.

Last year the board discontinued free text books in the high school and next year will discontinue them in the grade schools at an estimated saving of $23,500.

Under the existing limitation law and under existing conditions the board felt that it was necessary to accomplish economies in the school budget for next year, and after considerable deliberation and study, including a review of the records of the meeting of city school officials recently held in Jamestown, it decided upon its plan. The cuts made are not as drastic as suggested in the resolutions of the Jamestown school officials' meeting.

Man Claims Radio Cured Deafness

Reno, Nev., March 21.—Radio eventually may cure partial deafness, in the belief of Norman Squires, of this city, who cites his own case as an illustration.

Two years ago, Squires says, he was totally deaf in his left ear now, after constant treatments by radio, he declares he can hear a whisper across the room.

Radio sound waves, passing along the auditory nerves from the head phones, massage the nerves and stimulate them to the extent that hearing is restored, he contends.

AIR ROUTE SAFEST

Paris, March 21.—The airplane is the safest transport. This is the opinion of many on both sides of the English channel and is backed up by insurance companies whose rates for air are only half the railway and boat costs.

PAID $50,000 TO GET BOOZE SAYS WITNESS

John Goroni of New York Tells Daugherty Committee of Profiting By It

Washington, Mar. 21.—John Goroni of the Elks Drug Company of New York told the Daugherty investigating committee today that William A. Orr had told him Howard Mannington, who had a desk in the "little green house on K street" got $2 a case in liquor sold with withdrawals which he arranged. Goroni said once he paid $50,000 to Orr.

Goroni said he also conferred with Thomas B. Felder, regarding seizure of 7,000 cases of Scotch whisky. Felder said he was a friend of the Attorney General, the witness said, and told him to go home and that he would get the liquor sooner or later.

Goroni said the money in $1,000 bills was collected from other parties, one said to be John Lynn, liquor dealer, who finally hanged himself.

The $50,000 was a balance, the witness said, that Lynn owed to Orr and Owen Murphy on withdrawal papers.

The money was for business of five drug companies in New York and Brooklyn, Goroni said. Orr previously testified to aiding the company but said the most he could remember handling was $5,000.

Orr was selling withdrawal permits for $15 a case, said Goroni, who said that every company got back $1 a case.

Afterward Goroni said he had paid Murphy around $150,000.

The first papers he got, Goroni said, were for withdrawals of whisky from the Overholt Distillery at Pittsburgh. Other papers were from the Sherwood Distillery, Baltimore, the Kentucky Distillery Company and a Maryland distillery.

T. A. CUMMINS, MANDAN, DIES

Pioneer Merchant Succumbs in Local Hospital

T. A. Cummins, a member of the pioneer merchant firm of Cummins and Co., Mandan, died at a local hospital early this morning following a long illness of complications from disease of the heart. Mr. Cummins had been in a critical condition since the holidays and had been confined to the hospital for a number of weeks.

Mr. Cummins is survived by a widow and four children, Robert, William, Mrs. Margaret Hecker and Mrs. John Kasper. Robert is a student at Notre Dame University and had been here recently but returned to the University to resume his studies when his father showed improvement.

Alaska College Has 69 Students

Fairbanks, Alaska, March 21.—The Alaska Agricultural College and School of Mines, believed to be the farthest north college in the world, has reelected Charles Ernest Bunnell president. Mr. Bunnell, former federal judge here, founded the institution 16 months ago. It has an enrollment of 69 students.

AMERICAN BLUEJACKETS WILL STAY IN HONDURAN CAPITAL TO PROTECT CITIZENS REGARDLESS OF PROTEST

Washington, Mar. 21.—(By the A. P.) American bluejackets are to remain in Tegucigalpa, capital of Honduras, until American lives and property are afforded adequate protection by the Honduran authorities.

Instructions to keep a detachment ashore with an especially watchful eye on the American legation and consulate within whose confines foreigners as well as Americans have gathered during serious revolutionary disturbances were forwarded to the commander of the cruiser Milwaukee yesterday by the Navy department after consultation with the state department.

The instructions were dispatched when a report was received from Franklin Morales, the American minister at Tegucigalpa, that the de facto government had demanded that the 167 men and nine officers of the Milwaukee land Wednesday to afford protection to Americans be returned to the cruiser and asserted that if they remained the Honduran government would accept no responsibility for eventualities.

In reply Minister Morales said the detachment would remain until the Honduran authorities were able to give Americans adequate protection and that he would not accept responsibility for the consequences if the United States forces were attacked.

WOMEN FAIL AT DES LACS

Des Lacs, N. D., March 21. Voters of Des Lacs, which two years ago gained nationwide publicity through electing a full set of women officials, Tuesday defeated a women's slate of candidates run on stickers.

A year ago women officials were retired after a year in office by male opponents run on stickers. The women failed to turn the tables this year with the sticker system.

The defeated women assert they did not seek the office, and declare their names were printed on the stickers without their knowledge previous to the election.

The vote ranged about 50 to 25, or two to one for the men.

SHORTBRIDGE IS RELEASED

Furnishes $6,000 Bond to Morton County Officials

Mandan, N. D., Mar. 21.—Dr. W. R. Shortbridge of Flasher was released from custody by Sheriff Charles McDonald late last night upon furnishing $6,000 bond for appearance in Justice J. E. Campbell's court April 1 for preliminary hearing on the charge of second degree murder. He entered a plea of not guilty when arraigned yesterday.

Dr. Shortbridge was arrested yesterday morning on complaint of States Attorney Connolly in connection with the death of Freda Nadler Holta.

Today Mr. Connolly was grilling Charles Ditto, Flasher youth, who is alleged to have driven the car in which Dr. Shortbridge is said by officials to have carried the body of the dead woman from Flasher to Bismarck early Wednesday morning, February 27.

Examination of the body of Mrs. Holta and a post-mortem examination which is planned by States Attorney Connolly will not be held until the return of Chief of Police Martinson of Bismarck from another state where he has been seeking material witnesses.

Flour For Millions From Minneapolis

Minneapolis, March 21.—Minneapolis maintained its title of "Mill City" in 1923, during which year flour to feed approximately 31,000,000 people, or almost one-third of the population of the United States, was shipped from the mills of the city.

Figures announced by the secretary's office of the Chamber of Commerce show that 51,996 cars, or 15,458,740 barrels of flour were shipped from here during the year 1923. Using the millers' unofficial estimate of half a barrel per capita consumption a year, based on previous years' tabulations, the flour shipments total would indicate that about 31,000,000 men, women and children were fed with bread and breadstuffs from the local production.

Totals for 1923 were considerably lower than the 1922 figures, the mills here running much below capacity most of the year. In 1922 50,440 cars containing 17,444,892 barrels were shipped.

The 26 local flour mills have a normal capacity of practically 100,000 barrels flour production a day, but insufficiencies of suitable wheat raised in the northwest in recent years has curtailed the operations of the mills.

Seek New Mill Board Chairman

Grand Forks, N. D., Mar. 21.—A chairman is scheduled to be elected Monday morning at the reorganization meeting of the board of managers of the state mill and elevator. To fill the position made vacant by the resignation of Gur L. Ireland since the last meeting of the board.

Two new members of the board to succeed Mr. Ireland and J. F. McGrath of Fargo, are to take office Monday.

The regular meeting was scheduled to be held today but has been postponed. It was announced yesterday by K. C. Nelson, secretary of the board.

OAKES ALDERMEN REELECTED

Oakes, N. D., March 21.—With no contests on the position, C. O. Johnson, P. J. Aasen and Glenn V. Dill were re-elected aldermen from the first, second and third wards here respectively.

Mrs. Reine Batchelor, incumbent, was re-elected park commissioner for the five year term over D. F. Woeller, by a vote of 194 to 181. Woeller ran on stickers.

About half the total city vote was cast.

COOLIDGE PLAN FOR SPEEDING CONGRESS UP

House Leaders to Meet President; Propose to Take up Supply Bills Soon

Washington, Mar. 21. Republican leaders in the house devoted much of their time today to working out a legislative program preparatory to their conference with President Coolidge tonight on plans for speeding up action on important measures.

The President is planning to hold a similar conference later with Senate leaders.

During their preliminary study of the legislative situation the house leaders have decided to call up Monday the resolution introduced by Representative Fish, Republican, New York, appropriating $10,000,000 for relief among German women and children and dispose of it in one day under a special rule limiting debate. They plan then to take up in turn the Army bill, the independent office appropriation bill, the Johnson immigration measure and the other supply bills. Votes before adjournment of the session on a child labor amendment to the constitution and on the inaugurating of Presidents and convening Congress also are contemplated.

M'ADOO MAKES MORE GAINS

To Control Georgia Convention With Ease

Atlanta, Ga., Mar. 21.—Belated returns today in the Georgia Democratic presidential preferential primary brought William G. McAdoo's probable total voting strength in the state convention to 320 delegates. The state convention will be held in Atlanta April 23.

Senator Oscar Underwood will have 84 delegates, returns indicated. The total number of delegates to be selected to attend the state convention is 412. There were four counties in the state with two unit votes each that did not hold primaries.

Mr. McAdoo, based on election returns, will have the support of the Georgia delegation of 28 members in the national Democratic convention, the state convention selecting the national convention delegates.

St. Car Transfers Are Wasted

Los Angeles, Cal., March 21. More than 30,000 street railway transfers were wasted daily, according to the Los Angeles Railway. Its figures show that during one month 5,968,115 transfers were issued, of which 1,091,975 were used and 2,794,380 unused or wasted.

Vote on Laws

The vote count to go ahead the election laws as the tabulation progressed against senate bill No. 375, which is aimed the compromise on bank tax settlements approved by the legislature for the state bond issue and county officials' amendments, and against the Fedge bill.

Returns from 1,638 precincts give H. B. 285 for 47,425; against 52,071; senate bill 233 for 46,081; against 45,479; senate bill 282 for 45,479; against 50,375; senate bill No. 375 for 46,733; against 49,333.

1,566 precincts give state bond issue for 51,589; against 42,291. County officials' amendment for 53,122; against 36,328. Initiated farm labor lien 1,638 precincts give for 42,240; against 56,538.

An unusual situation may be precipitated by the defeat of senate bill No. 375, the bank tax validating law, which nullified compromises heretofore made by county commissioners and the state tax commissioner under which practically all banks of the state had paid taxes for the years 1920, 1921 and 1922 when the state law under a court decision, did not tax them at all. MURPHY, PERRY IN HOT BATTLE FOR DEM PLACE

Will Require Almost Complete Returns to Settle Issue Between Them For Position

COOLIDGE HOLDING UP

President to Have Greater Lead Over LaFollette Than Was Expected

MURPHY LEAD 252

Latest returns this afternoon at 4 p. m. are:

1,723 precincts H. B. Murphy 6,052; H. B. Perry 3,800.

1,934 precincts Coolidge 50,339; LaFollette 37,032; Johnson 30,934.

1,761 precincts—Garnett 34,707; Kinzer 25,096; Bismarck 21,382; Bohman 12,147.

The battle for the titular leadership of the Democratic party of North Dakota in national party affairs took the limelight today in the tabulation of the votes from North Dakota's state presidential preference primary election.

Because of the relatively small number of Democratic votes in the state, election officials in many counties did not devote the same energy to tabulating the vote on the Democratic national committeeman fight between R. B. Murphy of Bismarck and H. B. Perry of Ellendale, but today interest centered on the fight because it became apparent that almost a full vote would have to be recorded before the winner could be decided.

Perry took the lead with a heavy vote in Minot, where it was evident much work was done for him, but Murphy continued to gain as the returns came in and when 1,400 precincts had been reported he had 5,092 votes to 5,245 votes for Perry, a lead of 357 votes, but the scattering votes in many league precincts throughout the state favored Perry as the returns came in.

LATE RETURNS

Returns from 1,934 precincts out of 2,058 in North Dakota for Republican presidential preference election: Coolidge 50,539; LaFollette 37,032; Johnson 30,934.

Democratic national committeeman, 1,574 precincts give Murphy 5,810; Perry 5,464.

1,761 precincts give Bohman 12,147; Burdick 21,382; Garnett 34,707; Kinzer 25,096.

Returns from 1,791 precincts give H. B. 285 for 47,425; against 54,732; senate bill 233 for 47,379; against 55,733; house bill 282 for 47,713; against 54,261; S. B. 375 48,772; against 53,144.

Amendments 1,684 precincts

give state bond issue 53,878; against 45,810; county officials' amendment for 50,323; against 39,222; Fedge farm labor bill for 1,853 precincts give for 44,972; against 70,343.

Coolidge Majority Large

President Coolidge will have a handsome majority over Senator LaFollette in North Dakota—larger than was at first anticipated. When 1,635 precincts had been reported, with but a few more than 200 yet to be heard from, the President had 49,175 votes to 34,384 for Senator LaFollette and 30,532 for Senator Hiram Johnson.

Harrison Garnett, candidate for Republican national committeeman, continued to hold a lead of approximately 10,000 over R. A. Kinzer and he was safely elected Republican national committeeman. When 1,771 precincts had been reported, with about 200 yet to be heard from the vote was: Harrison Garnett, Real Republican, 32,232; R. A. Kinzer, LaFollette man, 29,248; Usher L. Burdick, Johnson man, 20,278; Eric Bowman, Republican state committee, 11,176.

The vote count to go ahead the election laws as the tabulation progressed against senate bill No. 375, which is aimed the compromise on bank tax settlements approved by the legislature for the state bond issue and county officials' amendments, and against the Fedge bill.

Returns from 1,638 precincts give H. B. 285 for 47,425; against 52,071; senate bill 233 for 46,081; against 45,479; senate bill No. 282 for 45,479; against 50,375; senate bill No. 375 for 46,733; against 49,333.

1,566 precincts give state bond issue for 51,589; against 42,291. County officials' amendment for 53,122; against 36,328. Initiated farm labor lien 1,638 precincts give for 42,240; against 56,538.

DEMOCRATIC STATE CONTEST IS CLOSE

AUTHORITY TO CALL SINCLAIR
IS CHALLENGED

Counsel for Oil Magnate Re-
sists Effort to Call Him
Before Body Again

COMMITTEE UNDECIDED

Adjourns Session Without
Acting on Protest Voiced
By Mr. Littleton

Washington, March 21.—The right of the oil committee to proceed with its inquiry into the leasing of Teapot Dome and related subjects was challenged today by counsel for Harry F. Sinclair when he returned to the witness stand for questioning about his possible relations to the dramatic disclosures of recent weeks.

Attorneys for the operator based their objection on the Walsh resolution adopted by Congress directing annulment of the oil leases. They pointed out that the resolution declared the leases were made under circumstances indicating fraud and corruption and said that if this be true the committee had to ascertain what it was directed to ascertain.

The committee adjourned without deciding whether Sinclair should be questioned.

In a long argument presented immediately after the witness was called to the stand Martin W. Littleton of the Sinclair counsel contended that by the resolution Congress not only had brought to an end the jurisdiction of the committee but had "defined the policy of the government that the oil shall be preserved for the government."

Pass On Validity

"You have passed upon the validity of these leases," Littleton said, "and as far as the legislative action can be effective you have delegated the leases to be void and have legislatively imposed an injunction without regard to the property."

"You have established a policy of the government on this subject and anything you claim to do is only a detail which would not warrant further examination of my client in this matter."

"You not only say that the leases were void but the language you use is very broad and the policy you have established is very definite. You have declared the policy of this government is that the oil should be maintained in the ground as a reserve supply to meet a national emergency. You have thus discharged all the duties placed in your hands."

"What is it your committee is investigating that entitles it to take my client who has been here time and again with his books and papers and say 'You must testify further.' 'Have you any jurisdiction which entitles you to do so under the standards and precedents of the American government.'"

Never Sustained

The right of the Congressional committees to call witnesses and papers from all over the country to aid in framing legislation, the attorney argued, never had been sustained by the courts.

"Has it ever been denied?" asked Senator Walsh, the committee prosecutor.

"No, but it has been questioned," was the reply.

There was a long colloquy between Littleton and the Senators as to the rights of Congressional committees to summon witnesses. Sinclair's counsel contended that the committee was "without any vestige of power."

"If your idea should prevail," said Senator Dill, Democrat, Washington, "this committee might as well close its doors and quit."

"It should either quit or do its work in a constitutional fashion," replied Littleton.

"As I understand Mr. Littleton's position," said Senator Walsh, "it is that members of Congress are obligated for the purpose of informing themselves concerning contemplated legislation to depend upon the press, their talks with individuals and other voluntary information which anybody may be willing to give them but they cannot compel anybody to come before a committee and tell it the facts."

"Senator, your statement is factitious," Littleton said.

"No, it is not," returned Senator Walsh. "It is a statement of argument."

Court Test Suggested

The argument grew more heated. Finally Senator Spencer, Republican, Missouri, suggested that the power of Congress to compel attendance of witnesses should be passed upon as quickly as possible. Littleton agreed but was unable to advance a method by which the question would be settled.

Calling attention that the government had brought suit in Wyoming against the Mammoth Oil Company in which fraud was charged against Sinclair this was another reason why his client should not be questioned further.

"He (Sinclair) is further charged in this bill (the government bill of complaint) with a conspiracy to defraud the government," Littleton said, adding that it was doubtful if Sinclair could be compelled to testify in a court because of that charge.

NORTH DAKOTA
IMPROVING

"Looking Up" Says Federal Reserve Official

Fargo, N. D., Mar. 21.—North Dakota's agricultural problems parallel those of western Canada, Curtis L. Mosher of the Ninth Federal Reserve district bank told Fargo Rotarians at their regular weekly meeting Wednesday. He declared that the problems in this state are being met in much the same way, too, and chiefly by appealing to and aiding individual farmers.

Mr. Mosher regretted the defeat of the Norbeck-Burnett bill. He complimented Dr. John Lee Coulter highly for his work in outlining the plan and for the work he has done in furthering diversification.

The $10,000,000 corporation for aiding banks of the northwest will be of material assistance in adjusting matters in the wheat growing states.

The speaker declared that conditions are unusually promising at this time. There has been a great change toward optimism in the past two weeks, he said.

JOHN KILEY,
AGED 69, DIES

Succumbs to Pneumonia After
Short Illness

John W. Kiley, aged 69 years, died this morning at 8 o'clock in a hospital after a brief illness of pneumonia.

Mr. Kiley came to North Dakota in 1905 from Ohio, taking a homestead in Sheridan county, and has resided in Bismarck for about five years, since he retired from the farm. He was a member of the Episcopal and St. Mary's Catholic church.

Surviving are the widow and eight children, Benjamin of Denhoff; Francis of Helena, Mont.; James of Bismarck and William of Grand Forks; Mrs. A. J. Weist of Sykeston; Mrs. D. E. O'Brien of Sykeston; Mrs. George Pyseno of Denhoff and Miss Leona Kiley of Bismarck.

The hour for the funeral has not been determined.

FOUND DEAD
UNDER TRUCK

Devils Lake, N. D., March 21.—Alfred S. Miller, implement dealer and standard oil agent at Penn, N. D., near here, was found dead under his overturned oil truck, in the ditch near Penn, by E. A. Toomey of Devils Lake, county coroner and undertaker. Toomey was returning to this city from Churchs Ferry. With the assistance of A. L. Sondrall of Moorhead, Minn., who was driving with him, he removed Miller's body from under the truck.

"It is thought the truck skidded into the ditch. Miller was badly cut about the face, but it is thought he died of suffocation."

He was a son of Louis H. Miller, Ramsey county pioneer, and was a member of the Elks and Masonic fraternity.

His widow and two children survived.

TWO FINED ON BOOZE CHARGE;
CAR IS TAKEN

Edward Harding and E. W. Hall of Sterling were fined $15 and $10 each by Police Magistrate W. C. Cushman yesterday on charges of being drunk and disorderly, preferred by Policemen William Ebeling who arrested them late at night. The police said they found in separate containers a half-gallon, quart and pint of home brew bought in Mandan by the pair.

After the police charge was disposed of William Welch, federal officer, stepped in and confiscated the Maxwell car they were driving on the ground that liquor was being transported in it.

NORMAL HALL
IS DEDICATED

Pageant Given at Minot as Part of Celebration

Minot, N. D., Mar. 21.—The public reception and pageant at the Minot Normal last night opened the "three day exercises" commemorating the past decade of service by the institution and marking the formal dedication of the new wing of the school, recently completed at a cost of approximately $100,000.

Students of the school, escorted by visitors through the institution on an inspection tour previous to the pageant of progress which will be given in the Normal gymnasium beginning at 2 p. m., with the departments of history, physical education, home economics, manual training and art and music cooperating.

Step by step the pageant depicted the progress of the school from the date of its founding to the present rapidly growing institution which it is today.

Two Former Presidents

Dr. A. G. Crane, former president of the school and now head of the state university of Wyoming and Professor W. E. Clark, also a former president of the Normal and now connected with the State Teachers college at Duluth, Minn., are scheduled to be in attendance at the ceremonies.

GIRL RECOVERS
FROM WOUND

Fargo, N. D., Mar. 21.—Miss Gladys Lohre, a student of the Mayville, N. D., high school, is recovering in a Fargo hospital from an accidental revolver wound, sustained Sunday at the Mayville high school assembly room.

Several members of the junior class were at the school to straighten up the room following a play, presented the night before. One of them was handling the revolver which went off, the bullet striking Miss Lohre in the shoulder and lodging in her neck.

BULLS RAID SHOP

London, March 21.—Two bulls, escaping from their drover, charged into a tobacconist's shop and scattered people in all directions. One of the bulls chewed several packs of tobacco. The other, seeing his reflection in a mirror, gazed at it for some time and then walked out of the shop. The tobacconist suffered no ill effects.

CUT $25,000
FROM SCHOOLS'
BUDGET HERE

City Board Reduces Total Expenditures Planned For
The Next Year

TUITION IS RAISED

Kindergartens To Be Discontinued, Other Departmental Changes Made

Members of the city school board, in session last night, took steps to effect economies in the operation of the city schools next year under a plan worked out by members of the board and school officials under which it was believed by the board members that the efficiency of the schools would not be impaired.

The board decided at the outset in the consideration of its deliberations on the subject that it would not seek to decrease teachers' salaries, believing that they are not too high under existing conditions and desiring to keep up a high standard in the city's schools.

Under the proposed plan $25,000 will be lopped off the city's school budget next year, reducing it from $128,000 to $103,000, the budget including the fixed charges for interest and sinking fund on bonds.

One of the steps taken by the board was to raise the tuition charge for non-resident pupils in the high school from $100 to $125 per year. The tuition for grade school attendance was left at $50. The board was moved to raise the tuition in the high school, it was explained, because of the high cost of maintaining the school and because of the lack of room to take care of all pupils desiring admittance to the high school.

About 150 of the pupils in the high school come from outside the district. The cost per pupil is estimated at around $125 per year, so that the board in fixing the tuition at $108 felt it fixed the charge at less than actual cost. Since all expenses of the district are borne by the taxpayers living in it, it was felt by the board unfair to the district to have them pay for an excessive number of non-resident pupils. The high school, too, is crowded so badly that pupils living within the district cannot be given the facilities desired.

To Reduce Number

It is expected by the board that the increase of the tuition for non-resident pupils will decrease the number in the high school. This will not only make it possible to give the local pupils better attention, in the board's view, but also will result in a reduction of the grades, which will be eliminated has not been decided.

The board, in its economy program, decided to discontinue the kindergartens next year, to abolish the department of physical training for the girls, there being one in charge of this training, to discontinue a music supervisor for the grades, abolish free text books in the grades and reduce salaries of janitors from $110 to $90 per month.

Music Action

In abolishing the position of supervisor of music in the grades, members of the board said that one qualified teacher in each building will supervise the music instruction in that building. Some years ago, it was explained, there was a supervisor in pennmanship, and this position was discontinued because of a reduction of the grades, being named to supervise pennmanship. A teacher in each building also will supervise physical culture work for the girls.

Last year the board discontinued free text books in the high school and next year will discontinue them in the grade schools at an estimated saving of $2,500.

Under the existing limitation law and under existing conditions the board felt that it was necessary to accomplish economies in the school budget for next year, and after considering deliberation and study, including a review of the records of the meeting of city school officials recently held in Jamestown, it decided upon its plan. The cuts made are not as drastic as suggested in the resolutions of the Jamestown school officials' meeting.

Man Claims Radio
Cured Deafness

Reno, Nev., March 21.—Radio eventually may cure partial deafness, in the belief of Norman Squires, of this city, who cites his own case as an illustration.

Two years ago, Squires says, he was totally deaf in his left ear. Now, after constant treatments by radio, he declares he can hear a whisper across the room.

Radio sound waves, passing along the auditory nerves from the head phones, massage the nerves and stimulate them to the extent that hearing is restored, he contends.

AIR ROUTE SAFEST

Paris, March 21.—The airplane is the safest transport. This is the opinion of many on both sides of the English channel and is backed up by insurance companies whose rates by air are only half the railway and boat costs.

Says Withdrawal of Liquor
Was Arranged and Several Paid Large Sums

Washington, Mar. 21.—John Goroni of the Elks Drug Company of New York told the Daugherty investigating committee today that William A. Orr had told him Howard Manning, who had a desk in the "little green house on K street" got $2 a case in liquor sold with withdrawals which he arranged. Goroni said once he paid $50,000 to Orr.

Goroni said he also conferred with Thomas B. Felder, regarding seizure of 7,000 cases of Scotch whisky. Felder said he was a friend of the Attorney-General, the witness said, and told him to go home and that he would get the liquor "sooner or later."

Goroni said the money in $1,000 bills was collected from "other parties," one said to be John Lynn, liquor dealer, who finally hanged himself.

The $50,000 was a balance, the witness said, that Lynn owed to Orr and Owen Murphy on "withdrawal papers."

The money was for business of five drug companies in New York and Brooklyn, Goroni said. Orr previously testified to aiding the company but said the most he could remember handling was $6,000.

"Orr was selling withdrawal permits for $15 a case," said Goroni, who said that every company got back $1 a case.

Afterward Goroni said he had paid Murphy "around $150,000."

The first papers he got, Goroni said, were for withdrawals of whisky from the Overholt Distillery at Pittsburgh. Other papers were from the Sherwood Distillery, Baltimore, the Kentucky Distillery Company and a Maryland distillery.

LIMIT OF ENDURANCE

Washington, March 21.—Harry Jameson, arrested for assault and battery, told the judge how it came about: "We was shootin' craps, yo' honor, an' when Ah discovered one of them other boys was playin' with loaded dice, Ah couldn't forbear myself. So Ah crowned him."

Inasmuch as the coronation ceremony was performed with a brick, Jameson had to pay "25 and costs."

AMERICAN BLUEJACKETS WILL STAY
IN HONDURAN CAPITAL TO PROTECT
CITIZENS REGARDLESS OF PROTEST

Washington, Mar. 21.—(By the A. P.) American bluejackets are to remain in Tegucigalpa, capital of Honduras, until American lives and property are afforded adequate protection by the Honduran authorities.

Instructions to keep a detachment ashore with an especially watchful eye on the American legation and consulate within whose confines foreigners as well as Americans have gathered during serious revolutionary disturbances were forwarded to the commander of the cruiser Milwaukee yesterday by the Navy department after consultation with the state department.

The instructions were dispatched when a report was received from Franklin Morales, the American minister at Tegucigalpa, that the de facto government had demanded that the 167 men and nine officers of the Milwaukee landed Wednesday to afford protection to Americans be returned to the cruiser and asserted that if they remained the Honduran government would "accept no responsibility for eventualities."

In reply Minister Morales said the detachment would remain until the Honduran authorities were able to give Americans adequate protection and that he would not accept responsibility for the consequences if the United States forces were attacked.

WOMEN FAIL
AT DES LACS

Des Lacs, N. D., March 21.—Voters of Des Lacs, which two years ago gained nationwide publicity through electing a full set of women officials, Tuesday defeated a women's slate of candidates run on stickers.

A year ago women officials were retired after a year in office by male opponents run on stickers. The women failed to turn the tables this year with the sticker system.

The defeated women assert they did not seek the offices, and declare their names were printed on the stickers without their knowledge previous to the election.

The vote ranged about 50 to 25, or two to one for the men.

SHORTRIDGE
IS RELEASED

Furnishes $6,000 Bond to
Morton County Officials

Mandan, N. D., Mar. 21.—Dr. W. R. Shortridge of Flasher was released from custody by Sheriff Charles McDonald late last night upon furnishing $6,000 bond for appearance in Justice J. E. Campbell's court April 1 for preliminary hearing on the charge of second degree murder. He entered a plea of not guilty when arraigned yesterday.

Dr. Shortridge was arrested yesterday morning on complaint of States Attorney Connolly in connection with the death of Freda Nadler Holta.

Today Mr. Connolly was grilling Charles Ditto, Flasher youth, who is alleged to have driven the car in which Dr. Shortridge is said by officials to have carried the body of the dead woman from Flasher to Bismarck early Wednesday morning, February 27.

Exhumation of the body of Mrs. Holta and a post-mortem examination which is planned by States Attorney Connolly will not be held until the return of Chief of Police Martinson from a long illness of complications from disease of the heart. Mr. Cummins had been in a critical condition since the holidays and had been confined to the hospital for a number of weeks.

Mr. Cummins is survived by a widow and four children, Robert, William, Mrs. Margaret Becker and Mrs. John Kasper. Robert is a student at Notre Dame University and had been here recently but returned to the University to resume his studies when his father showed improvement.

Flour For Millions
From Minneapolis

Minneapolis, March 21.—Minneapolis maintained its title of "Mill City" in 1923, during which year flour to feed approximately 31,000,000 people, or almost one-third of the population of the United States, was shipped from the mills of the city.

Figures announced by the secretary's office of the Chamber of Commerce show that 54,966 cars, or 15,458,740 barrels of flour were shipped from here during the year 1923. Using the millers' unofficial estimate of half a barrel per capita consumption a year, based on previous years' tabulations, the flour shipments total would indicate that about 31,000,000 men, women and children were fed with bread and breadstuffs from the local production.

Totals for 1923 were considerably lower than the 1922 figures, the mills here running much below capacity most of the year. In 1922 30,440 cars containing 17,444,892 barrels were shipped.

The 26 local flour mills have a normal capacity of practically 100,000 barrels flour production a day, but insufficiency of suitable wheat raised in the northwest in recent years has curtailed the operations of the mills.

FLANKY'S LEDGER

MT. HOLLY, N. J., March 21.—A dusty attic of an old mansion here has produced an old ledger which is said to be Benjamin Franklin's original account book. One entry shows that Franklin printed 1600 copies of his protest to the king of England against the stamp act.

The year 1924 corresponds to the year 5684 of the Jewish era.

1,934 precincts Coolidge 50,539; LaFollette 37,052; Johnson 30,934.

The battle for the titular leadership of the Democratic party of North Dakota in national party affairs took the limelight today in the tabulation of the votes from North Dakota's state presidential preference primary election.

Because of the relatively small number of Democratic votes in the state, election officials in many counties did not devote the same energy to tabulating the vote on the Democratic national committee fight between R. B. Murphy of Bismarck and H. H. Perry of Ellendale, but today interest centered on the fight because it became apparent that almost a full vote would have to be recorded before the winner could be decided.

Perry took the lead with a heavy vote in Minot, where it was evident much work was done for him, but Murphy continued to gain as the returns came in and when 1,409 precincts had been reported he had 5,802 votes to 5,245 votes for Perry, a lead of 557 votes, but the scattering votes in many league precincts throughout the state favored Perry as the returns came in.

Atlanta, Ga., Mar. 21.—Belated returns today in Georgia Democratic presidential preference primary brought William G. McAdoo's probable total voting strength in the state convention to 320 delegates. The state convention will be held in Atlanta April 23.

Senator Oscar Underwood will have 81 delegates, returns indicated. The total number of delegates to be selected to attend the state convention is 412. There were four counties in the state with two unit votes each that did not hold primaries.

Mr. McAdoo, based on election returns, will have the support of the Georgia delegation, 28 members in the national Democratic convention, the state convention selecting the national convention delegates.

St. Car Transfers
Are Wasted

Los Angeles, Cal., March 21.—More than 90,000 street railway transfers were wasted daily, according to the Los Angeles Railway. Its figures show that during one month 9,866,355 transfers were issued, of which 7,091,975 were used and 2,764,380 unused or wasted.

Seek New Mill
Board Chairman

Grand Forks, N. D., Mar. 21.—A chairman is scheduled to be elected Monday morning at the reorganization meeting of the board of managers of the state mill and elevator, to fill the position made vacant by the resignation of Guy L. Ireland since the last meeting of the board.

Two new members of the board to succeed Mr. Ireland and J. F. McGinn of Fargo, are to take office Monday are: C. W. Ross and Geo. Wilder.

The regular meeting was scheduled to be held today but has been postponed, it was announced yesterday by K. C. Nelson, secretary of the board.

OAKES ALDERMEN REELECTED

Oakes, N. D., March 21.—With no contests on the position, C. O. Johnson, P. J. Aasen and Glenn W. Dill were re-elected aldermen from the first, second and third wards here respectively.

Mrs. Reine Batchelor, incumbent, was re-elected park commissioner for the five year term over D. F. Mueller, by a vote of 194 to 181. Mueller ran on stickers.

About half the total city vote was cast.

An unusual situation may be precipitated by the defeat of senate bill No. 375, the bank tax validating law, which ratified compromises heretofore made by county commissioners and the state tax commissioner under which practically all banks of the state had paid taxes for the years 1920, 1921 and 1922 when the state law, under a court decision, did not tax them at all. SECRETARY OF SINCLAIR NOT TO BE FOUND

Oil Inquiry Committee Suffers Setback in Its Probing Efforts Today

TO CALL SINCLAIR

Washington, Mar. 20.—The oil inquiry committee suffered a setback today when it under took to mount into a story that Harry I. Sinclair had turned over a large batch of securities to Attorney General Daugherty and Will H. Hays, former chairman of the Republican national committee, to help pay out the heavy deficit incurred by the party treasury in the campaign of 1920.

Press servers reported that a few days had been unable to locate G. D. Wahlberg, former private secretary to Sinclair, who was supposed to have been the stand today as the first witness in the review of investigation.

Mr. Hays had been reported to appear later and Sinclair's probable will be questioned tomorrow.

When it was before the committee today, the committee learned that Sinclair turned over securities to Lloyd Bond to Mr. Hays. It did not identify the man named in the committee did not follow up the report.

While the search for Wahlberg continued, the committee turned to other ramifications of its inquiry.

Representative Thomas, of New York, voluntarily testified that the witness stand to do, that he was the man referred to in records of oil stock transactions said before the committee and Louis F. Bond, the committee's investigator, followed him to explain how the identification had been made and to explain further his report on the stock transactions of others.

Questioned again about Attorney General Daugherty's stock account, Bond said the first transaction was the sale of 500 shares of Sinclair Consolidated and the next was an outright purchase of the same number of shares.

Details of the oil stock transactions of Jess W. Smith, confident of the Attorney General as given by Bond, showed a net profit of $100,000 in 1922.

TO SEEK JENNINGS

Washington, Mar. 20.—Al Jennings, once famous train robber of Oklahoma, is to be subpoenaed by the oil committee.

In announcing a subpoena for Jennings, Senator Walsh said he would be questioned in connection with the rumor that Jake Hanson, former Republican national committee chairman, Oklahoma, undertook to put the group as jail and let the oil trust bleed the country in 1920.

Spotlight Is On Car Dealer Today

There is a fast-growing public consciousness that the secret of satisfaction in car ownership lies with the local dealer, says W. E. Lahr of the Lahr Motor Sales Co.

The numerous and radical recent changes in automobile design and construction, the tremendous production of cars, the multiplicity of models and the acceleration of the whole industry have thrown squarely upon the local dealer responsibility for local satisfactory automotive transportation.

The good automobile dealer of today is the one who most completely meets these various responsibilities to his local market.

Don't Let That Cold Turn Into "Flu"

Rub on Good Old Musterole. That cold may turn into "Flu," Grippe or, even worse, Pneumonia, unless you take care of it at once. Rub good old Musterole on the congested parts and see how quickly it brings relief.

Colds are merely congestion. Musterole, made from pure oil of mustard, camphor, menthol and other simple ingredients, is a counter-irritant which stimulates circulation and helps break up the cold.

As effective as the messy old mustard plaster, does the work without blister. Just rub it on with your finger-tips. You will feel a warm tingle as it enters the pores, then a cooling sensation that brings welcome relief.

To Mothers: Musterole is now made in milder form for babies and small children. Ask for Children's Musterole. 35c and 65c, in jars and tubes.

TABERT CASE IS BASIS FOR NEW LEGION PICTURE

American Legion Portrayed as Strong Factor for Law and Order, Humanity and Righteousness

Based upon the sensational Tabert case, the facts of which were treated at great length in the daily press, "The Whipping Boss," heralded as "the most unusual play ever produced," is arousing public opinion throughout the United States against barbarous penal systems.

"The Whipping Boss" will be exhibited for the first time in Bismarck at the Auditorium Theatre, beginning March 25. It will be presented by Lloyd Spetz Post of The American Legion.

Although based upon a harsh theme, the producer of the film has made an acceptable audience picture. The film is crowded with action and is tense but not harassing. To relieve the story's tenseness, somewhat, a love theme has been woven into the scenario. The cast is headed by such stars as Lloyd Hughes, Barbara Bedford, Eddie Phillips and Lydia Knott.

It will be recalled that the American Legion played an important part in the investigation into Tabert's death. The Legion Post at Langdon, N. D., co-operating with the Commercial Club of that city, collected funds for the investigation and prosecution.

Martin Tabert was the son of a rancher, residing near Langdon. Like many other boys, young Tabert heard the call of the open road and made his way South. On his way northward again he was arrested for stealing a ride on a freight train. Within a few hours he had been convicted of vagrancy and fined $25.00 with the alternative of ninety days in prison.

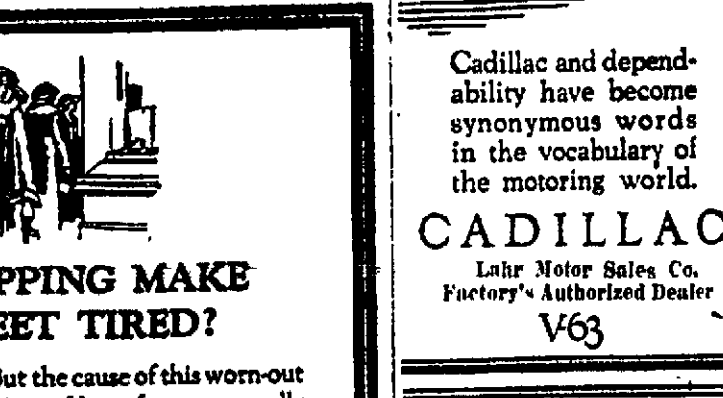

Indeed, young Tabert had gone into a lumber camp where prisoners, slaves under a whipping boss, for two months the boy worked on although his mother had forwarded $25.00 to the sheriff so that her son might be released.

One day when his feet were covered with sores he asked the whip-

MEN'S CLOTHES SHOP

ALEX ROSEN & BRO.

We 23,000 Men

Present you the utmost in fine cars

There are 23,000 of us building Studebaker cars. Most of us are partners in the business. Thousands of us are stockholders. All of us, after a certain time, get dividends on wages.

All of us, after two years, get vacations with pay. All of us, after one year, get dividends on wages. After five years, that annual dividend adds 10% to our earnings.

The company spends vast sums on co-operative work with us. When we retire, we get pensions.

So Studebaker cars represent the best that we, in combination, know how to offer you.

Some of us belong to management. If we do better than expected, we get 10% of the excess.

So every man among us does his best to make Studebaker cars supreme.

Our fine backing

Behind us is an honored name. For 72 years Studebaker has been the leader in quality and class.

We have $90,000,000 of assets. We have $50,000,000 in model plants. We have 12,500 up-to-date machines. So Studebaker cars are built by modern and efficient methods.

We have an engineering department which costs $300,000 yearly. That to maintain and develop Studebaker standards.

We subject Studebaker cars to 30,000 inspections. That requires 1,200 men. All told over 70,000 machine and hand operations are performed in manufacture of a Studebaker car. In so many operations, though each one is small, there is a great opportunity for economies and savings.

We have a $10,000,000 body plant, to maintain the Studebaker standard of coach work. There sons, fathers and grandfathers are working together, to build such bodies as Studebaker always built.

Those bodies are finished by many operations, including 15 coats of paint and varnish.

The open bodies are upholstered

All Studebaker models are equipped with Timken bearings. There are few cars in America, regardless of price, which equal ours on this point. In our Light-Six, for instance, we put more Timken bearings than are used in any competitive car, within $1,500 of its price.

We give unusual equipment. On some Big-Six models, for instance, we include two nickel-plated bumpers, one or two extra disc wheels with cord tires, a courtesy light, a motometer, steel trunk, etc.

How we do this

We give you these extra values through quantity production. We build 150,000 cars per year — more than any other fine-car builder. Our large expenses are divided by that enormous output.

We do it by building our own bodies, our own parts. Thus we save outside profits.

We do it because we have up-to-date plants, with all forms of modern equipment.

The results are these: Beauty, quality and luxury such as no maker can surpass.

Prices far below the usual. Our Light-Six, built by ordinary methods, would sell for from $200 to $400 more. Our Big-Six can be compared only with the highest-priced cars in the world.

Here are 13 models, from $1,025 to $2,685. Each of them offers scores of advantages over any comparable car. They offer such values that the trend toward Studebakers has become overwhelming.

Go analyze the reasons before you buy a quality car.

See how Studebaker gained top place

145,167 people last year paid $201,000,000 for Studebaker cars.

The sales have almost trebled in the past three years. Studebaker growth in fine cars is the marvel of this industry.

In the old days, houses were built with big, roomy attics. That space is valuable now. To make the most of it, buy some sheets of this different wallboard. When you get through nailing it to the joists or studding, you will have a new room or two — neat, smooth-surfaced, cool in summer and warm in winter, fireproof, too — all because of Sheetrock.

BANK RECORDS INTRODUCED IN SCANDIA TRIAL

State Seeks to Show Condition of Scandinavian-American Bank

Grand Jurors, N. D., Mar. 21.—Evidence bearing on alleged worthless assets of the Scandinavian-American Bank of Fargo, were put in evidence by the state in an effort to show that the bank was insolvent on February 7, 1921, and that H. J. Haggen, the former president, who is being tried on a charge of receiving deposits in an insolvent bank, knew of its condition.

Most of this testimony was given from the records of the defunct bank by N. J. Breving, former assistant cashier.

Prove Case

The making of the deposit on which the case rests was established by the testimony of P. Amundrud of Fargo, who testified that he had deposited $35 in the bank on February 7, 1921. The deposit slip and the records of the deposit in Amundrud's pass book and in the loose leaf ledger of the bank were also placed in evidence to establish this fact.

Testifying from the figures shown in the general ledger of the bank Mr. Breving said that at the close of business on February 5, 1921, the last business day before that on which the deposit in question was made, the liabilities of the Scandinavian-American bank amounted to $290,410.44, and after subtracting therefrom the capital, surplus and earnings included therein the balance left was $992,168.33.

Lists Assets

Turning to the resources side of the ledger, George A. Bangs, special assistant attorney general began an analysis of the loans and discounts which were listed as assets on the date in question. These were carried on the ledger as amounting to $907,000, but it was brought out by Mr. Bangs that this sum included two memorandums, one for $13,000 and another for $15,000 which were said to represent interest earned but not collected.

Included in the list also were two notes signed by F. C. Heaton, formerly an employee of the bank for $29,240 and $43,942 respectively.

AT THE MOVIES

AT THE CAPITOL

Tom Mix faces more perils than the well known Pauline herself in "Eyes of the Forest," this latest William Fox starring vehicle, which opens a two-day run at the Capitol theatre tonight. How close he came to being blown to the place where all good movie actors go may be realized from the fact that about two hundred pebbles were extracted from his back as the result of the premature explosion of dynamite in one scene in which the roadway was blasted. But, Tom rode through on Tony, and finished the scene, despite his wounds.

AT THE ELTINGE

Returning to the screen after an absence of nearly two years, William S. Hart, the popular star in Western pictures, will be seen in his new picture, "Wild Bill Hickok" at the Eltinge theatre today and tomorrow, Friday and Saturday. "Wild Bill" Hickok was the quickest "draw" in the west, and in the discharge of his duties as a peace officer in the reconstruction days following the Civil War, he was forced to bring to a premature close the lives of some sixty persons who were foolish enough to want to be his men. Some of the famous historical characters introduced in the course of the production are Calamity Jane, William B. ("Bat") Masterson, Wyatt Earp, Doc Holliday, Chalk Reeson, Bill Tighman, Shotgun Collins and Luke Short, all figures prominently in the story, which deals with a highly interesting phase of early days in the middle west.

I. J. MOE PLANS TO SEEK OFFICE OF GOVERNOR

Valley City, Mar. 21.—I. J. Moe, former mayor of Valley City and present publisher of the Peoples Opinion here, has announced through his paper that he will be candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor at the June state primaries.

Tax reduction through elimination of governmental commissions, abolition of the board of managers of the mill and elevator association and the return of that industry to the Industrial Commission, a four-year term for all elected state, county, municipal, village and township offices, quadrennial meetings of the legislative assembly with four-year terms for representatives and eight-year terms for senators, stringent enforcement of all laws and reduction of school taxes on the basis of local conditions are the main planks in his announced platform.

REBELS LEAVE FOR FRONTERA

Mexico City, Mar. 21.—The rebels have evacuated Puerto Mexico, says a dispatch from war minister Serano and the port has been occupied by federal forces. The rebels embarked for Frontera.

SNAKE HAD RING

London, March 21.—A quaint ring, discovered in the mouth of one of the stone snakes in the statuary of the fountain of Hotel Savoy, has been restored to its owner after an interval of seven years. At a dance in 1917, a friend of the owner placed the ring in the snake's mouth and the two were unable to retrieve it.

PURE MILK for BISMARCK

We carefully Clarify and Pasteurize all our milk.

In reporting to the International Association of Dairy and Milk Inspectors in 1923, Dr. G. K. Cooke said:

"Absence of any reports of epidemic disease traced to pasteurized milk speaks highly for the present day efficiency of commercial pasteurization as a public health safeguard."

Dr. E. S. Godfrey, Jr., of the New York State Health Department says that Pasteurization is the only adequate safeguard for milk supplies.

NEW SETBACKS ON WHEAT MART

Good Weather Reports Are Bearish Factors

Chicago, Mar. 21.—Favorable crop conditions west and southwest were mainly responsible for price setbacks in the wheat market. The opening which ranged from one-eighth to three-eighths cents lower, May $1.04 5-8 to $1.04 3-4 and July $1.06 was followed by slight further declines and then something of a rally.

In the subsequent dealings sellers were cautious owing to recent sharp declines. The close was steady at the same as yesterday's finish to one-fourth to three-eighths cents lower, May $1.04 7-8 to $1.05 and July $1.06 1-4.

MINNEAPOLIS GRAIN

Minneapolis, Mar. 21.—Wheat receipts 199 cars compared with 217 cars a year ago. Cash No. 1 northern $1.14 to $1.19; No. 2 dark northern spring choice to $1.20 to $1.25; ordinary to good $1.14 to $1.19; May $1.14; July $1.14 5-8; September $1.13 1-4. Corn No. 3 yellow, 70 1-4 to 71 1-4 cents; oats No. 3 white 44 to 44 1-4 cents; barley No. 3 to 71 cents; rye No. 2, 61 5-8 to 62 1-8 cents; flax No. 1, $2.15 3-4 to $2.20 3-4.

ST. PAUL LIVESTOCK

St. Paul, Mar. 21.—Cattle receipts 900. Generally steady. Killing quality plain. Bulk common and medium steers $7.00 to $8.00. Fat steers $8.50 to $9.50. Bulk $8.50 and down. Canners and cutters firm, bulk $2.75 to $3.25. Bologna bulls slow, steady with Thursday's close. Medium and medium lands $3.75 to $4.25. Choice heavies up to $4.50 or higher. Stockers and feeders in light supply nominally steady. Calves receipts 1,000. Steady to strong. Improved quality considered, best lights to packers $9.00.

Hog receipts 12,500. Around 10 cents higher. Good and choice butcher and bacon hogs averaging from 150 to around 250 pounds $7.10. Top $7.10. Few 140 to 150 pound hogs $6.75. One hundred thirty to 140 pound averages $6.25. Rough or heavy packing sows mostly $6.00. Better grade pigs $6.00 to $6.25.

Sheep receipts 500. Steady. Odd lots fed lambs $15.25. Few culls around $11.00. Best ewes here $10.00.

MINNEAPOLIS FLOUR

Minneapolis, Mar. 21.—Flour unchanged. Shipments 51,372 barrels. Bran $23.00.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK

Chicago, Mar. 21.—Hog receipts 17,000. Mostly five to 10 cents higher than yesterday's best time. Top $7.00.

Cattle receipts 5,000. Beef steers and yearlings fairly active. Early top steers $11.50. Bulk fed steers $8.00 to $10.00.

Sheep receipts 7,000. Generally quiet. Slow. Few early sales fat woolled lambs $16.25 to $16.75.

TWO BODIES RECOVERED

Taken Out of Crosby Mine Six Weeks After Accident

Crosby, Minn., March 21.—Two bodies were recovered from the Millard mine here late yesterday, six weeks and four days almost to the hour, from the day 41 miners were drowned when the waters of Mud Lake inundated the mine.

The bodies brought out were identified as those of Valentine Cole and Miner Graves. The men were found covered with mud in a leaning position behind a car, with their arms raised around each other and a timber across the bodies.

The bodies were recovered by Captain Davies and Engineer Frank Platt, with four miners, who went 50 feet into the 155 foot level, at great risk to themselves.

LANPHER HATS

You can wear just as smart a hat as the man in New York. Lanpher that's why!

New styles on review at all good hat stores $5

As all desirable green coffees are at a premium price and that there are going to be very few houses, that will sell green coffees that will be of up quality, our house will be one of the few that will be able to take care of their regular customers.

The situation on green coffees will be harder to buy, from now on, than they were in the time of our late war. Owing to the extreme scarcity of good coffees, there will be a continued advance on all green coffees.

Constipation breeds 40 diseases

What a wreck of the human body constipation can make. It floods the system with dangerous poisons. It leads to serious diseases. Don't neglect it!

Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, if eaten regularly, is guaranteed to relieve permanently the most chronic cases of constipation. If it fails, your grocer will return your money. Kellogg's is ALL bran. Doctors recommend it. They know that only ALL bran can bring 100 per cent results.

Kellogg's Bran stimulates the intestine in nature's own wonderful way. It sweeps, cleans and purifies! It makes the bowels function naturally—and regularly.

Kellogg's Bran has a delicious, nut-like flavor. Eat it with milk or cream—or in the recipes given on every package. Eat two tablespoonfuls daily—in chronic cases, with every meal. All grocers.

MARKET NEWS

NEW SETBACKS ON WHEAT MART

Good Weather Reports Are Bearish Factors

Chicago, Mar. 21.—Favorable crop conditions west and southwest were mainly responsible for price setbacks in the wheat market. The opening which ranged from one-eighth to three-eighths cents lower, May $1.04 5-8 to $1.04 3-4 and July $1.06 was followed by slight further declines and then subsequent dealings sellers were cautious owing to recent sharp declines. The close was steady at the same as yesterday's finish at one-fourth to three-eighths cents lower, May $1.04 7-8 to $1.05 and July $1.06 1-4.

MINNEAPOLIS GRAIN
 Minneapolis, Mar. 21.—Wheat receipts 199 cars compared with 217 cars a year ago. Cash No. 1 northern $1.13 to $1.19; No. 1 dark northern spring choice to $1.24 to $1.30; good to choice $1.20 to $1.23; ordinary to good $1.14 to $1.19; May $1.12; July $1.14 5-8; September $1.13 1-4. Corn No. 3 yellow, 70 1-4 to 71 1-4 cents; No. 2 white 44 to 44 1-4 cents; barley 58 to 71 cents; rye No. 2, 61 5-8 to 62 1-8 cents; flax No. 1, $2.45 3-4 to $2.50 3-4.

ST. PAUL LIVESTOCK
 St. Paul, Mar. 21.—Killing receipts 900. Generally steady. Cattle quality plain. Bulk common and medium steers $7.00 to $8.00. Fat she-stock $3.50 to $7.50. Bulk $6.50 and down. Canners and cutters firm, bulk $2.75 to $3.25. Bologna bulls slow, steady with Thursday's common and medium kinds $3.75 to $4.25. Choice heaves up to $4.50 or higher. Stockers and feeders in light supply nominally steady. Calves receipts 1,000. Steady to strong. Improved quality considered, best lights to packers $9.00.
 Hog receipts 12,500. Around 10 cents higher. Good and choice butcher and bacon hogs averaging from 150 to around 250 pounds $7.10. Top $7.10. Few 140 to 150 pound hogs $6.75. One hundred thirty to 140 pound averages $6.25. Rough or heavy packing pigs mostly $6.00. Better grade pigs $6.00 to $6.25.
 Sheep receipts 200. Steady. Odd lots fed lambs $15.25. Few culls around $11.00. Best ewes here $10.00.

MINNEAPOLIS FLOUR
 Minneapolis, Mar. 21.—Flour unchanged. Shipments 51,372 barrels. Bran $23.00.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK
 Chicago, Mar. 21.—Hog receipts 47,000. Mostly five to 10 cents higher than yesterday's best time. Top $7.60.
 Cattle receipts 5,000. Beef steers and yearlings fairly active. Early top steers $11.50. Bulk fed steers $8.00 to $10.00.
 Sheep receipts 7,000. Generally steady. Slow. Few early sales fat woolled lambs $16.25 to $16.75.

TWO BODIES RECOVERED

Taken Out of Crosby Mine Six Weeks After Accident

Crosby, Minn., March 21.—Two bodies were recovered from the Crosby mine here late yesterday, six weeks and four days almost to the hour, from the day 41 miners were drowned when the waters of Mud Lake inundated the mine.
 The bodies brought out were identified as those of Valentine Cole and Miner Graves. The men were found covered with mud in a leaning position behind a car, with their arms clasped around each other and a timber across the bodies.
 The bodies were recovered by Captain Davies and Engineer Frank Platt, with four miners, who went 50 feet into the 135 foot level, at great risk to themselves.

"As all desirable green coffees are at a premium price and that there are going to be very few houses, that will sell green coffees that will be of cup quality, our house will be one of the few that will be able to take care of their regular customers.
 "The situation on green coffees will be harder to buy, from now on, than they were in the time of our late war. Owing to the extreme scarcity of good coffees, there will be a continued advance on all green coffee."

THE STATE'S OLDEST NEWSPAPER
(Established 1873)

A STRANGE KIND OF SLAVERY

This man became a slave to health rules—John H. Patterson, founder of the National Cash Register Co. His biographer, Samuel Crowther tells about it.

Patterson's health broke down from over-work and strain when he was 60. He had always been a determined fighter, always gone after things hammer-and-tongs. That's how he went after new health.

Patterson was an admirer of Cornaro, the Italian, who believed that most people dig their graves with their teeth, and who fasted scientifically, living to well over 100 years. So Patterson started by fasting 37 days, taking only a few sips of water a day. The fast made him feel so much better that he went on a scientific vegetarian diet, chiefly baked potatoes and toasted crusts.

Full of enthusiasm, Patterson went to London and hired the strong man, Sandow, to train him.

For months Sandow worked with Patterson as if training a prizefighter. He made him ride 25 miles a day on horseback. Most of his other time was strenuously used in the gymnasium. A special trainer rubbed him down numerous times each day.

At the end of a year Patterson returned to his Dayton business "a new man." He employed a staff of doctors to watch him. They hovered nearby constantly—weighing him, testing his blood pressure, listening to his heart, charting his temperature. Food for his meals was weighed on delicate scales.

Patterson took five baths and rubdowns a day, a special doctor watching the temperature of his bath. Every 30 minutes, a valet brought him a glass of hot distilled water.

He rose at 4 every morning, took a horseback ride, had bath and breakfast. Then to work for an hour, next a bath, and rubdown and into bed for an hour in a special room at his factory. This program was repeated through the day.

The result? Well, Patterson lived 18 years after his breakdown at 60, and was vigorous and happy to the end.

Patterson's experience demonstrates that man can reach almost any goal if he is willing to work hard enough and devote sufficient time to the quest.

Many will wonder if his 18 years of good health was worth the price he paid for it, financially and in time expended. Was the game worth the candle? It certainly was, for he enjoyed the whole process. He was a happy slave. All of us are slaves to some one or some system, job or hobby. As long as we enjoy it, why not?

WHEN $1 LOOKED BIG AS A HOUSE

Unskilled labor worked for the equivalent of 14 cents a day in Europe in the year 1520. Times were considered very prosperous when this wage rose to 22 cents a day in 1600.

Improvement came very slowly. About 35 years ago Carroll Wright, chief of the United States Bureau of Statistics, conducted an extensive investigation of the past and found that between 1770 and 1800 the average American blacksmith worked for 71 cents a day, laborers 28 cents and carpenters 61 cents.

Even as late as 1875 the blacksmith got only $2.31 a day, unskilled labor $1.50 and carpenters $2.46 a day.

Many lines of work now pay as much an hour as was paid for a full day's work a half century ago.

The cost of living was not as low as most of us imagine, back yonder in "the good old days" when a dollar looked as big as a house.

Take wheat, which is a fairly accurate measure or gauge of general prices. Wheat in 1816 sold for $1.75 a bushel here in America. The price dropped to 99 cents in 1845, bounded to $2.85 in 1867, slumped to 58 cents in 1894.

Cost of living in the old days, fluctuated decidedly, for prices have always traveled in 50-year cycles, reaching about the same high peaks every half century. One generation has low prices. The next generation has high prices, and the old-timers lean on their canes and discuss the low cost of living of long ago. Their parents, still another generation back, knew only high prices.

Wages in the old days were not very elastic. They were adjusted for a period of low prices, and failed to keep pace with the cost of living when it climbed high. So the man born in an old-time period of high prices was decidedly out of luck.

Our generation appears to be the first in history in which wages have become elastic enough to keep in sight of skyrocketing cost of living. Cost of living still tends to climb faster than average incomes, but the solution is much improved compared with former generations.

SINGERS

Sing, brothers, sing. The Associated Glee Clubs start a "systematic attempt to revive the interest of men in choral singing."

More power to them. Nothing buries axes and welds people together like a singing match. Patriotism, too, is at its best when the mob can burst into song.

Trouble is, so few songs are worth while. Singing usually is an emotional debauch. On the other hand, that's pleasant than setting to words and music such worthwhile subjects as the Einstein Theory, Reparations and Fourth Dimension.

If this were 1840, the whole country would be singing parodies about Teapot Dome.

Perhaps four big American battleships found unfit could be sold to the rum runners.

Insane asylums are getting ready for the annual spring poet rush.

Leap year makes many leap to conclusions.

EDITORIAL REVIEW

Comments reproduced in this column may or may not express the opinion of The Tribune. They are presented here in order that our readers may have both sides of important issues which are being discussed in the press of the day.

APPALLED AT AMERICAN WASTE

The Oberammergau Passion Players, who visited the United States to find a market for their village products and save their own people from starvation, were not only overwhelmed by the plenty they found here, but were appalled by the waste.

"If we could only send back to our country what you waste!" they said.

The spectacle was a hard one for them to bear, at this winter time, because of the pitiful contrast it brought to their minds. And their viewpoint, which seems so abnormal to an American, is normal in present-day Europe. What American wastes might relieve the suffering of that continent.—Thrift Magazine.

THE BOY SCOUTS

Announcement was made in The Forum this week that the Fargo Boy Scout Council is trying to find ways and means for securing additional funds to cover the deficit in operating expenses for 1923 and to insure the expenses for 1924.

Everyone recognizes the constructive work of the Boy Scout organization. There is no longer any argument concerning its effectiveness in being of real service to the boys of a community and to the community itself. It is fulfilling a real mission with the younger generation in developing them into the men of tomorrow.

Such work should not be hampered by the lack of necessary funds to carry on. While it is directly building the boy, it is also directly building citizenship. The man who believes in good citizenship desires that the boys of today have greater opportunities than he had, to be properly equipped to fulfill the obligations of citizenship.

The Boy Scout movement is one of the agencies in our American life which is thus equipping the future manhood of the Nation. It is deserving of both moral and financial support.—Fargo Forum.

ADVENTURE OF THE TWINS
BY OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

"Do climb up and see what is the matter with the town clock," begged Mister Fuzz Wuzz of Doofunny Land.

"What's wrong with it?" asked Nancy.

"I don't know, but the cuckoo hasn't been out for four hours and nobody knows the time," Mrs. Cut-out said she didn't have the breakfast dishes done when her husband came home for lunch.

"Come on, Nancy, we'll borrow the ladder from the Humpty Dumpty Circus clown," said Nick.

So they got the ladder and up they went and peeped inside the cuckoo clock.

"Where are you, Mrs. Cuckoo? Aren't you home?"

"Yes," answered the cuckoo from a dark corner. "But I'm mad."

"What are you mad about?" asked Nancy.

"Well, I'll tell you," said the cuckoo. "For years and years I've had it all my own way and I've worked faithfully for my masters. Instead of getting my reward, they put an imposter in my place to mock me. Every time I go out and call the hour, he jumps out of a little door, too, and I know he's making fun of me."

"You must be crazy," said Nick. "There isn't another bird anywhere near. There isn't another bird in Doofunny Land except the cut-out parrot."

"Is it the parrot?" asked Nancy.

"Parrots aren't any too polite and do mock people sometimes."

"No, it isn't the parrot!" declared the cuckoo. "She's silly and has gotten me mixed up a lot of times by her cackling, but she is a goodhearted soul. No, I'll tell you who it is. It's the dog that lives in that dog-house over there across the street."

"Why, that's Radio Rex," laughed Nancy. "He wouldn't hurt a flea—I mean he wouldn't hurt anything else but a flea, and I'm sure he wouldn't make fun of you."

"Wouldn't he though?" exclaimed the cuckoo. "I'll just show you."

With that she came out of her dark corner and as it was exactly 5 o'clock, she called out loudly: "Cuckoo! Cuckoo! Cuckoo! Cuckoo!"

Scarcely had her voice died away than out of his house sprang Radio Rex so suddenly that he nearly fell over.

"There! Didn't I tell you?" demanded the cuckoo. "He's had a house built almost exactly the shape of my clock and had the door made the same and everything. You can't tell me he isn't mocking me!"

"But he can't help it," said Nick. "He is made that way. He can't go back into his house alone. He has to wait until someone puts him there. And when anybody calls him he has to non up whether he wants to or not. He thinks you are calling him when he hears your voice. See, I'll show you."

Nick climbed down and gently lifted Rex back into his little house. Then he called sharply, "Rex! Come out!"

And the little dog came hopping out so quickly he hit Nick in the nose.

"Well, well, well! I declare!" laughed the cuckoo. "I'm not mad any more, and I promise to tell the time promptly every hour. It will be fun to watch the little dog come out!"

What a difference it makes—the way we look at things, kiddies, doesn't it?

MANDAN NEWS

VISITED DAUGHTER

Mrs. Louis Larson has returned from Chicago where she has been spending about ten days with her daughter, Miss Lois Larson, who is in training at an Evanston hospital. Mrs. Larson left about three weeks ago with Mr. Larson, veteran conductor of the Northern Pacific, who is again a patient at the Northern Pacific Hospital in St. Paul, receiving further treatment in an effort to effect a complete cure of the complications which developed incident to the serious illness of sleeping sickness which he suffered last year.

HERE WITH FRIENDS

"Curley" O'Neil, a former resident of Mandan arrived in the city Tuesday for a short visit with friends. Mr. O'Neil has been located at St. Paul for several years and before that time was at Spokane.

OPERATED UPON

Mrs. Max Kalweit of Center underwent an appendicitis operation this morning at the Deaconess hospital.

HOME FROM WEST

Dan Connolly has returned from points in Washington and Oregon where he has visited friends for several weeks.

ENTERS HOSPITAL

Wm. Rapp of near the city was entered for treatment today at the Deaconess hospital.

RETURNS HOME

Mrs. E. Turk, who has been a guest for a few days at the home of Mrs. Ed. Ferderer, left last evening for her home in Glen Ullin.

FROM ST. PAUL

John A. Timmerman returned last night from St. Paul where he had been for the past ten days receiving treatments for a facial infection.

PEOPLE'S FORUM

HAS LAW PROPOSED

Editor, The Tribune: If the primary law was approved in the election, I shall ascribe it to the apparent intention of the law; to divorce state politics and state elections from national party politics and national elections. And if the law was rejected at the polls, I shall ascribe that to the fact that the law did not accomplish what it said it would do. Instead of completely eliminating national party decorations from the state primary ballots it permitted a combination of them.

The law, we know, was framed by the I. V. A., for the I. V. A. and against the league. Whereas, to be square the law should have been framed for both of these parties, and therefore I say, if the law passed, or did not pass, I shall take upon myself the responsibility, and the burden, of getting an initiative proposition before the people at the polls in the next November election which will legalize state parties at the primary elections from national party politics. These parties shall have no connection with national political names. In fact, I shall give them no names, just a column on the ballots for each group. This I will explain next time.

E. A. JOHANSSON.

"DIAPEPSIN" ENDS STOMACH MISERY, GAS, INDIGESTION

Instantly! Stomach corrected! You never feel the slightest distress from indigestion or a sour, acid, gassy stomach, after you eat a tablet of "Diapepsin." The moment it reaches the stomach all sourness, flatulence, heartburn, gases, palpitation and pain disappear. Druggists guarantee each package to correct digestion at once. End your stomach trouble for few cents.

XLIII (Continued)
She had seen a good deal of the Sophisticates lately, and from what she had let drop he inferred that even when he had not been present they had talked of little else. They had by no means waited for his play to be finished and read to a select few. Hogarth and Scores had assured them long before it was finished that it would be a great play.

Once or twice there was a rustling in the back of his mind. They were not given to wild enthusiasms of this sort. They thought too highly of themselves. He realized how genuinely fond they were of him, but he had not hoped for more than critical appreciation, from the men, at least. Could it be possible?

But he was still in the first flush of his triumph, his brain hummed with pleasant memories of those hours at Gora Dwight's three nights ago. He had cleared the base of the pedestal on whose narrow and unaccommodating top he was soon to have his foothold, and it was not in human nature, at this stage of his progress, to suspect the sincerity of the adulation so generously poured at his feet.

And Mary, during this past fortnight (when he had been present, at least), had seemed back contentedly in reflected glory, and smiled sympathetically while they talked of the many Claverings first-nights they would attend in the sure anticipation of that class of entertainment up to which the Little Theatres and the Theatre Guild were striving to educate the public. They took it as a matter of course that he was to abide in the stimulating atmosphere of New York for the rest of his days. And they invariably insisted that "Madame Zattiany" must always sit in a state box and be a part of the entertainment. They were too well bred (and too astute) to hint at the engagement they were positive existed, but "hoped" she would be willing to add to the prestige of one who was now as much her friend as theirs. It was a curious position in which to place a woman like Mary Zattiany, but Sophisticate New York was not Diplomatic Europe, and he thought he saw her smile deepen into humor once or twice; no doubt she was reflecting that she had lived long enough to take people as she found them.

His reverie was interrupted by a bustling at the end of his hall, and he went to the door quickly, wondering who could have sent him a special delivery letter or a note at this hour. It proved to be a cablegram. He read it when he returned to his living room. It was dated Rome, Italy, and read: "I'll have you yet, Janet."

Clavering swore, then laughed. He tore the message into strips and sat down to read his newspapers; he had merely glanced at the headlines and his column. His eye was arrested by the picture of a man at the top of the first page of his own newspaper. Although smooth-shaven and very regular of feature, with no pronounced racial characteristics, it was, nevertheless, a foreign face, although difficult to place. From its distinction it might be Austrian, but the name below, "Prince Hohenhauser," might as easily be German. Still, it was not a German face, and Clavering studied it for a moment before reading the news text, wondering faintly at his interest.

It was unmistakably the face of a statesman, and reminded him a little of a picture of Prince Schwarzenberg, prime minister when Franz Josef ascended the throne, he had seen lately in a history of Austria. There was the same broad placidity of brow, the long oval face, the thin long slightly curved nose, the heavy lids, the slim erectness, the same suave repose. But this man's large beautifully cut mouth was more firmly set, had a faintly satirical suggestion, and the eyes a powerful and penetrating gaze. It was the face of a man who was complete master of himself and accustomed to the mastery of men.

Clavering read the story under the headlines: Prince Hohenhauser Arrives in New York.

Goes at Once to Washington
"Prince Hohenhauser, a distinguished political figure under the old Austrian Empire, arrived yesterday morning on the Noordam. He refused to be interviewed, but it is understood he has a large amount of money invested in the United States and has come to New York at the request of his lawyers to attend to certain necessary formalities. He was, in fact, met at Quarantine by Judge Trent, one of the most distinguished members of the New York Bar since his retirement from the Bench, and they went at once to the Prince's stateroom and remained there until it was time to leave the ship. It is significant, however, that the Prince, after engaging a suite at the Ritz-Carlton, and luncheon there with Judge Trent, took the afternoon train for Washington.

(To Be Continued)

As he recently left his estate in Switzerland to return to Vienna and accept a position in the Cabinet, and as it is well known that Austria desires the backing of the American Government to enable her to overcome the opposition of France to her alliance with Germany, or, it is whispered, with a kingdom farther south, it is not unreasonable to infer that he has come to the United States on a special, if secret, mission.

"The Prince was the subject of lively interest on the boat and of much speculation, but he took his meals in his suite and walked the decks only in the company of his secretary."

"He is a man of striking appearance, quite erect in height, with a square erect figure, fine features, and hardly looks his sixty years, in spite of his white hair."

Then followed a brief biography, which illustrated the efficiency of the newspaper "morque," for the statesman's reputation was, so far, wholly European:

"Prince Moritz Franz Ernst Felix von Hohenhauser was born October 6th, 1862, on his ancestral estate in what was then known as Galicia. His mother was a princess of the House of Schwarzenberg. He has been the head of his own historic house for the last forty years, and has one son and two daughters. His wife, a member of the Kalnoy family, died several years ago. 'Hohenhauser' was one of those most unbelievably vast estates of sixteen million acres possessed by a few of the Austrian noblemen under the old regime. In spite of the fact that Prince Hohenhauser was one of the greatest landlords in all Christendom he was a liberal in politics from the first, and the author of several of the reform laws in behalf of the people which, from time to time were forced upon the most conservative monarch in Europe. He was in sympathy with the revolution and offered his services at once to the new Government. They were declined, and he retired to Switzerland, where he has an estate near St. Moritz, and, it is understood, considerable money invested. His vast estates in what is now Poland were confiscated, but he was one of the wealthiest men in the Empire and is said to have transferred immense sums to the United States before the war."

Clavering dropped the newspaper. Liberal in politics. Immense sums invested in the United States. Judge Trent. There could be no possible doubt as to who the man was. The floor seemed unsteady for a moment.

And yet there was as little doubt that Mary Zattiany had long since ceased to care for him. That was over fifteen or sixteen years ago. They had known each other in later years, both equally indifferent to the other and to the past.

Yes, but she had then completely lost the beauty and the charm that had enthralled him, while he was still a man in his prime, who, with that appearance, no doubt, had other young and beautiful women in his life.

He may or may not have heard of the metamorphosis. At all events they had been political allies. He would call on her as a matter of course. And possibly out of more than politeness; he may have brought her an important message. Or he might find it expedient to confer with her on his present mission. That he had come on an important mission did not admit of a doubt; but at least he had not gone to her at once. His interest in her, so far, was still impersonal.

Clavering had too much of the arrogance of youth and he was too sure of Mary Zattiany's love for himself, to be apprehensive of the charms of a man of sixty, but he was invaded by a nameless and almost sickening fear. He had very swift and often very sure intuitions, and he was shaken by a premonition that in some manner, which in his ignorance of the facts he was unable to define, this man's presence in America boded no good to himself.

Business Firms To Be Represented

The second annual Mardi Gras Trade, under the patronage of the Bismarck Business and Professional Women's Club, is well under way to successful production. April 10th is the date set for the Mardi Gras, one evening's performance, to be given in the City Auditorium.

The committee on arrangements have called on many of the firms of the city and are gratified with the response they find. Not only are all business houses ready for displays outdoing those they put on last year, but many other firms are eager to bring on their productions and add their bit to the gaiety of the affair this year.

A mass meeting of representatives of all business firms interested is called for Monday evening next, at 7:20, in the Club rooms of the C. & P. W. Club in the Hinckley Block on Fourth Street. At this meeting all necessary arrangements will be completed for the Mardi Gras. The soliciting committees were unable to interview the heads of all firms of the city, but hope, by means of telephone, personal calls and this general invitation for all to send their representatives to the meeting on Monday night, to get the entire commercial life of Bismarck in the big style show of April 10.

ELLIOT GIVEN HIGH HONORS

Many Gather to Celebrate His 90th Birthday

Cambridge, Mass., March 21.—The duty of educated men lies in their service to their country in peace as well as in war, said Chas. William Elliot, president emeritus of Harvard University, who received the salutations of the American people on his 90th birthday. Chief Justice Wm. J. Taft, present as the personal representative of President Coolidge, bore the message of "love, gratitude and respect for one whose long life has been full of constant and eminent usefulness in promoting the welfare of his countrymen."

Bishop Wm. Lawrence, of Boston, announced that friends of Mr. Elliot had made gifts amounting to $1,250,000 for the better support of certain departments of the university, the gifts being, Bishop Lawrence said, "in recognition of your illustrious life."

Judge Edward T. Sanford, of Knoxville, Tenn., president of the Harvard Alumni Association, announced the creation by the association of the "Charles William Elliot book fund," to buy for the Harvard University library books in such fields as President Elliot shall designate.

THE STATE'S OLDEST NEWSPAPER
(Established 1873)

A STRANGE KIND OF SLAVERY

This man became a slave to health rules—John H. Patterson, founder of the National Cash Register Co. His biographer, Samuel Crowther tells about it.

Patterson's health broke down from over-work and strain when he was 60. He had always been a determined fighter, always gone after things hammer-and-tongs. That's how he went after new health.

Patterson was an admirer of Cornaro, the Italian, who believed that most people dig their graves with their teeth, and who fasted scientifically, living to well over 100 years. So Patterson started by fasting 37 days, taking only a few sips of water a day. The fast made him feel so much better that he went on a scientific vegetarian diet, chiefly baked potatoes and toasted crusts.

Full of enthusiasm, Patterson went to London and hired the strong man, Sandow, to train him.

For months Sandow worked with Patterson as if training a prizefighter. He made him ride 25 miles a day on horseback. Most of his other time was strenuously used in the gymnasium. A special trainer rubbed him down numerous times each day.

At the end of a year Patterson returned to his Dayton business "a new man." He employed a staff of doctors to watch him. They hovered nearby constantly—weighing him, testing his blood pressure, listening to his heart, charting his temperature. Food for his meals was weighed on delicate scales.

Patterson took five baths and rubdowns a day, a special doctor watching the temperature of his bath. Every 30 minutes a valet brought him a glass of hot distilled water. He rose at 4 every morning, took a horseback ride, had bath and breakfast. Then to work for an hour, next a bath, and rubdown and into bed for an hour in a special room at his factory. This program was repeated through the day.

The result? Well, Patterson lived 18 years after his breakdown at 60, and was vigorous and happy to the end.

Patterson's experience demonstrates that man can reach almost any goal if he is willing to work hard enough and devote sufficient time to the quest.

Many will wonder if his 18 years of good health was worth the price he paid for it, financially and in time expended. Was the game worth the candle? It certainly was, for he enjoyed the whole process. He was a happy slave. All of us are slaves to some one or some system, job or hobby. As long as we enjoy it, why not?

WHEN $1 LOOKED BIG AS A HOUSE

Unskilled labor worked for the equivalent of 14 cents a day in Europe in the year 1920. Times were considered very prosperous when this wage rose to 22 cents a day in 1900.

Improvement came very slowly. About 35 years ago Carroll Wright, chief of the United States Bureau of Statistics, conducted an extensive investigation of the past and found that between 1770 and 1800 the average American blacksmith worked for 71 cents a day, laborers 28 cents and carpenters 61 cents.

Even as late as 1875 the blacksmith got only $2.31 a day, unskilled labor $1.50 and carpenters $2.46 a day.

Many lines of work now pay as much an hour as was paid for a full day's work a half century ago.

The cost of living was not as low as most of us imagine back yonder in "the good old days" when a dollar looked as big as a house.

Take wheat, which is a fairly accurate measure or gauge of general prices. Wheat in 1816 sold for $1.75 a bushel here in America. The price dropped to 99 cents in 1845, bounded to $2.85 in 1867, slumped to 58 cents in 1894.

Cost of living in the old days, fluctuated decidedly, for prices have always traveled in 50-year cycles, reaching about the same high peaks every half century. One generation has low prices. The next generation has high prices, and the old-timers lean on their canes and discuss the low cost of living of long ago. Their parents, still another generation back, knew only high prices.

Wages in the old days were not very elastic. They were adjusted for a period of low prices, and failed to keep pace with the cost of living when it climbed high. So the man born in an old-time period of high prices was decidedly out of luck.

Our generation appears to be the first in history in which wages have become elastic enough to keep in sight of skyrocketing cost of living. Cost of living still tends to climb faster than average incomes, but the solution is much improved compared with former generations.

SINGERS

Sing, brothers, sing. The Associated Glee Clubs start a "systematic attempt to revive the interest of men in choral singing."

More power to them. Nothing buries axes and welds people together like a singing match. Patriotism, too, is at its best when the mob can burst into song.

Trouble is, so few songs are worth-while. Singing usually is an emotional debacle. On the other hand, that's pleasant than setting to words and music such worthwhile subjects as the Einstein Theory, Reparations and Fourth Dimension.

If this were 1840, the whole country would be singing parodies about Tsespot Dome.

Perhaps four big American battleships found unfit could be sold to the rum runners.

Insane asylums are getting ready for the annual spring poet rush.

Leap year makes many leap to conclusions.

APPALLED AT AMERICAN WASTE

The Oberammergau Passion Players, who visited the United States to find a market for their village products and save their own people from starvation, were not only overwhelmed by the plenty they found here, but were appalled by the waste.

"If we could only send back to our country what you waste!" they said.

The spectacle was a hard one for them to bear at this winter time, because of the pitiful contrast it brought to their minds. And their viewpoint, which seems so abnormal to an American, is normal in present-day Europe. What America wastes might relieve the suffering of that continent.—Thrill Magazine.

THE BOY SCOUTS

Announcement was made in The Forum this week that the Fargo Boy Scout Council is trying to find ways and means for securing additional funds to cover the deficit in operating expenses for 1923 and to insure the expenses for 1924.

Everyone recognizes the constructive work of the Boy Scout organization. There is no longer any argument concerning its effectiveness in being of real service to the boys of a community and to the community itself. It is fulfilling a real mission with the younger generation in developing them into the men of tomorrow. Such work should not be hampered by the lack of necessary funds to carry on. While it is directly building citizenship. The man who believes in good citizenship desires that the boys of today have greater opportunities than he had, to be properly equipped to fulfill the obligations of citizenship.

The Boy Scout movement is one of the agencies in our American life which is thus equipping the future manhood of the Nation. It is deserving of both moral and financial support.—Fargo Forum.

ADVENTURE OF THE TWINS

BY OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

"Do climb up and see what is the matter with the town clock," begged Mister Fuzz Wuzz of Doofunny Land.

"What's wrong with it?" asked Nancy.

"I don't know, but the cuckoo hasn't been out for four hours and nobody knows the time," Mrs. Cuckoo said she didn't have the breakfast dishes done when her husband came home for lunch.

"Come on, Nancy, we'll borrow the ladder from the Humpty Dumpty Circus clown," said Nick.

So they got the ladder and up they went and peeped inside the cuckoo clock.

"Where are you, Mrs. Cuckoo? Aren't you at home?"

"Yes," answered the cuckoo from a dark corner. "But I'm mad."

"What are you mad about?" asked Nancy.

"Well, I'll tell you," said the cuckoo. "For years and years I've lived all my own way and I've worked faithfully. But what happens? Instead of getting my reward, they put an impostor in my place to mock me. Every time I go out and call the hour, he jumps out of a little door, and I know he's making fun of me."

"You must be crazy," said Nick. "There isn't another bird anywhere near. There isn't another bird in Doofunny Land except the cut-out parrot."

"Is it the parrot?" asked Nancy. "Parrots aren't any too polite and do mock people sometimes."

"No, it isn't the parrot," declared the cuckoo. "She's silly and has gotten me mixed up a lot of times by her cocking her head at a goodhearted old man. I'll tell you who it is. It's the dog that lives in that dog-house over there across the street."

"Why, that's Radio Rex," laughed Nancy. "He wouldn't hurt a flea—I mean he wouldn't hurt anything else but a flea, and I'm sure he wouldn't make fun of you."

"Wouldn't he?" exclaimed the cuckoo. "I'll just show you."

With that she came out of her dark corner and as it was exactly 5 o'clock, she called out loudly: "Cuckoo! Cuckoo! Cuckoo! Cuckoo!"

Scarcely had her voice died away than out of his house sprang Radio Rex so suddenly that he nearly fell over.

"There! Didn't I tell you?" demanded the cuckoo. "He's had a house built almost exactly the shape of my clock and had the door made the same and everything. You can't tell me he isn't mocking me!"

"But he can't help it," said Nick. "He is made that way. He can't go back into his house alone. He has to wait until someone puts him there. And when anybody calls him he has to pop out whether he wants to or not. He thinks you are calling him when he hears your voice. See, I'll show you."

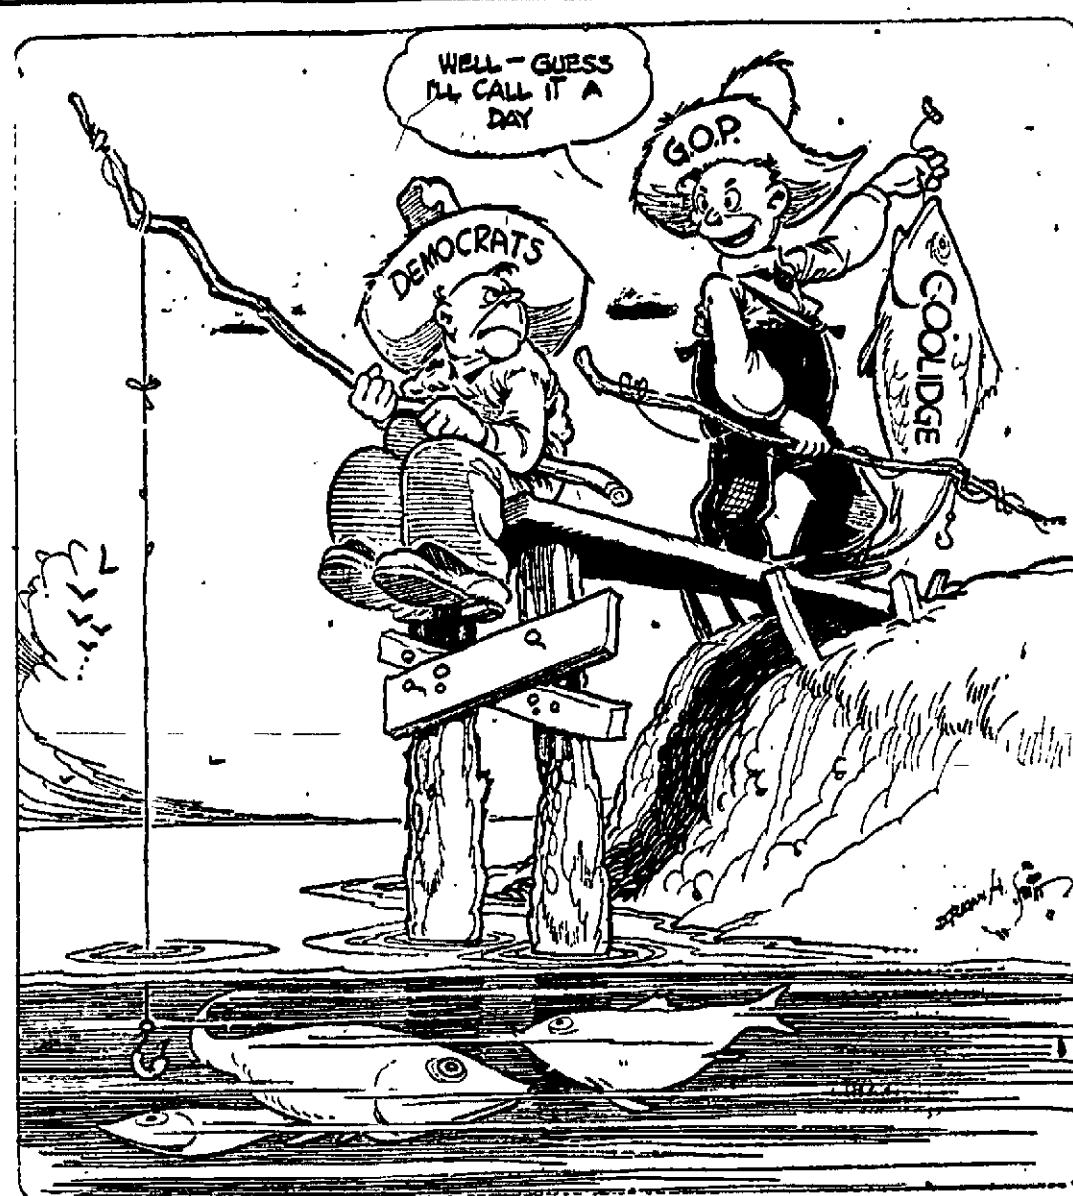

Nick climbed down and gently lifted Rex back into his little house. Then he called sharply, "Rex, come out!"

And the little dog came hopping out so quickly he hit Nick in the nose.

"Well, well, well!" declared Nick, laughing the cuckoo. "I'm not mad any more, and I promise to tell the time promptly every hour. It will be fun to watch the little dog come out!"

What a difference it makes the way we look at things, kiddies, doesn't it? (To Be Continued) (Copyright, 1924, NEA Service, Inc.)

Wm. Rapp of near the city was entered for treatment today at the Des Moines hospital.

RETURNS HOME

Mrs. E. Turk, who has been a guest for a few days at the home of Mrs. Ed. Ferderer, left last evening for her home in Glen Ullin.

FROM ST. PAUL

John A. Timmerman returned last night from St. Paul where he had been for the past ten days receiving treatments for a facial infection.

PEOPLE'S FORUM

HAS LAW PROPOSED

Editor, The Tribune: If the primary law was approved in the election, I shall ascribe it to the apparent intention of the law to divorce state politics and state elections from national party politics and national elections. And if the law was rejected at the polls, I shall ascribe that to the fact that the law did not accomplish what it set out to do. Instead of completely eliminating national party designations from the state primary ballots it permitted a combination of them.

The law, we know, was framed by the I. V. A. for the I. V. A. and against the league. Whereas, to square the law should have been framed for both of these parties, and therefore I say, if the law passed, or did not pass, I shall take upon myself the responsibility, and the burden of getting an initiative proposition before the people at the polls in the next November election which will legalize state parties at the primary election and general election. These parties shall have no connection with national political names. In fact, I shall give them no names, just a column on the ballots for each group. This I will explain next time. E. A. JOHANSSON, Raab, N. D.

She had seen a good deal of the Sophisticates lately, and from what she had let drop he inferred that even when he had not been present they had talked of little else. They had by no means waited for his play to be finished and read to a select few. Hogarth and Scores had assured them long before it was finished that it would be a great play.

Once or twice there was a rustling in the back of his mind. They were not given to wild enthusiasm too highly of themselves. He realized how genuinely fond they were of him, but he had not hoped for more than critical appreciation, from the men, at least. Could it be possible...

But he was still in the first flush of his triumph, his brain hummed with pleasant memories of those hours at Gora Dwight's three nights ago. He had cleared the base of the pedestal on whose narrow and unaccommodating top he was soon to have his foehold, and it was not in human nature, at this stage of his progress, to suspect the sincerity of the adulation so generously poured at his feet.

And Mary, during this past fortnight (when he had been present, at least), had seemed to bask contentedly in reflected glory, and smiled sympathetically while they talked of the many Claverings first nights they would attend in the sure anticipation of that class of entertainment up to which the Little Theatre and the Theatre Guild were striving to educate the public. They took it as a matter of course that he was to be able in the stimulating atmosphere of New York for the rest of his days. And they invariably insisted that "Madame Zattiany" must always sit in a stage box and be a part of the entertainment. They were too well bred (and too astute) to hint at the engagement they were positive existed, but "hoped" she would be willing to add to the prestige of one who was now, as much her friend as theirs.

What does "it" stand for when you don't mean cussing? Well, this time it stands for our four new features, "How to Marry," "How to Stay Single," and "How to Get a Divorce," and "How to Spring Clean." One of these may start next issue. We haven't decided yet.

New York actors plan to strike in June. If strikebreakers are substituted dire results may follow. No amateur can carry a canopied and long cigarette holder at the same time without injuring innocent bystanders.

The marble season is with us. A marble is a little round something which drops out of boys' pockets in school and rolls down the aisle until the teacher gets it.

Plant cucumbers in sandy soil. If well cared for you will get about 1000 stomach aches to the acre for your pains.

Learn to read music. Then when you don't want to sing you can say you have no music with you.

Political machines differ from talking machines. You never get a political machine paid for.

Fat people can reduce by talking to people who make them mad.

A big crop of wild oats will be put in this year.

Window panes last longer if kept away from baseball grounds.

thor of several of the reform laws in behalf of the people which from time to time were forced upon the most conservative monarch in Europe. He was in sympathy with the revolution and offered his services at once to the new Government. They were declined, and he retired to Switzerland, where he has an estate near St. Moritz, and it is understood, considerable money invested. His vast estates in what is now Poland were confiscated, but he was one of the wealthiest men in the Empire and is said to have transferred immense sums to the United States before the war.

Clavering dropped the newspaper. Liberal in politics. Immense sums invested in the United States. Judge Trent. There could be no possible doubt as to who the man was. The floor seemed unsteady for a moment.

And yet there was a little doubt that Mary Zattiany had long since ceased to care for him. That was over fifteen or sixteen years ago. They had known each other in later years, both equally indifferent to the other and to the past.

Yes, but she had then completely lost the beauty and the charm that had enthralled him, while he was still a man in his prime, who, with that appearance, no doubt had other young and beautiful women in his life.

He may or may not have heard of the metamorphosis. At all events they had been political allies. He would call on her as a matter of course. And possibly out of more than politeness he may have brought her an important message. Or he might find it expedient to confer with her on his present mission. That he had come on an important mission did not admit of a doubt; but at least he had not gone to her at once. His interest in her, so far, was still impersonal.

Clavering had too much of the arrogance of youth and he was too sure of Mary Zattiany's love for himself, to be apprehensive of the charms of a man of sixty, but he was invaded by a nameless and almost sickening fear. He had very swift and often very sure intuitions, and he was shaken by a premonition that in some manner, which, in his ignorance of the facts he was unable to define, this man's presence in America boded no good to himself.

Prince Hohenzauer Arrives in New York

Goes at Once to Washington

"Prince" Hohenzauer, a distinguished political factor under the old Austrian Empire, arrived yesterday morning on the Noordam. He refused to be interviewed, but it is understood he has a large amount of money invested in the United States and has come to New York at the request of his lawyers to attend to certain necessary formalities. He was, in fact, met at Quarantine by Judge Trent, one of the most distinguished members of the New York Bar since his retirement from the Bench, and they went at once to the Prince's apartment and remained there until it was time to leave the ship. It is significant, however, that the Prince, after engaging a suite at the Ritz-Carlton, and lunching there with Judge Trent, took the afternoon train for Washington.

BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT IS OPENED

Play Begins at Valley City This Afternoon For The State Championship

EXPECT BIG CROWDS

Valley City, Mar. 21.—The North Dakota state high school basketball tournament opened here today with eight district champions entered in the competition. Fargo, Valley City and Mandan rule the favorites in the tournament, with the Fargo team being the favorite to win the final game. The drawings were made here at 11 a. m. today by officials of the state organization.

Valley City, N. D., March 21.—The North Dakota state high school basketball tournament opened here today with eight district champions entered in the competition. Fargo, Valley City and Mandan rule the favorites in the tournament, with the Fargo team being the favorite to win the final game. The drawings were made here at 11 a. m. today by officials of the state organization.

Big crowds were expected at all games, which will be played in the teachers' college gymnasium. Local hotels and cafes were making arrangements to handle large crowds.

The teams to fight it out for the state title represent high schools as follows: Fargo, Valley City, Mandan, Dickinson, Grand Forks, Berthold, Devils Lake, Kenmare.

The games are scheduled as follows: Friday afternoon, 2:30 p. m. and 3:30 p. m. Saturday morning, 10 a. m. and 11 a. m. Saturday evening, 7:30 p. m. and 8:30 p. m. The game at 7:30 Saturday evening will be between the two teams which are eliminated in the semi-final round Saturday morning. The final game will commence immediately afterwards.

Expect Big Crowds
The Valley City State Teachers College is preparing for the biggest State Basketball tournament ever held in the State of North Dakota. Nothing has been spared to make this tournament the most successful tournament ever held in this state. The new gymnasium is well equipped to take care of the contending teams. The seating of the gymnasium is arranged to hold a crowd of fifteen hundred people.

Detailed accounts of the evening games will be broadcasted from the North Dakota Agricultural College. Those people who are interested in the tournament and who will be unable to attend, will be able to get accounts of the games by tuning in at seven-thirty, Friday and Saturday evenings.

The winning school will be awarded a beautiful silver basketball trophy and members of the winning team will receive gold watch fobs. The presentation of the awards will take place following the final game. After this a banquet will be given the contending teams and coaches, by the Valley City Commercial Club at the Rudolf Hotel.

The tournament managers have selected Lloyd E. Eyer of Bismarck, Minn., and Howard V. Millard of Decatur, Illinois. Both men have grown up with the game and have had a great deal of experience in this line of work. Both men are Big Ten Officials. These men can be relied on to give the best there is in the refereeing game.

Washington, March 20. Election of the next president may be thrown into the issue of Representatives.

Such a development, of course, is dependent upon the entrance of a third party of considerable strength.

Balancing varying claims and admissions of Republicans, Democrats and the Progressives interested in a third party, one obtains this result:

Total certain Republican electoral vote, 21; certain Democratic, 118; Progressive, 35, and doubtful, 227.

While these totals, charted on the above map, seem to give the Democrats the best of the showing, it must be remembered that a third party ticket would disorganize the Republican party more than it would the Democratic.

Nothing but a third party would make Iowa or Pennsylvania doubtful.

California might have gone into the doubtful column if Hiram Johnson headed a third party movement, but as it stands that state safely can be placed in the G. O. P. lineup.

The Democrats are allowed the "Solid South."

Senator Reed has been a disturbing factor in Missouri, but after the nomination there's no reason to believe he'll be otherwise than "regular."

So much for the big parties! Minnesota, the Dakota and Wisconsin should be Progressive.

NIGHTGOWNS

The newest nightgowns have ribbon girdles and are very much on the line of the chemise frock. They have less lace and trimming than have been considered smart and seem to have followed the lead of the tailored costumes.

Sun spots have been an interesting object of study for a century.

ASPIRIN

Beware of Imitations!

Unless you see the name "Bayer" on each tablet you are not getting the genuine Bayer product prescribed by physicians over twenty-two years and proved safe by millions for:

Rheumatism
Pain, Pain
Pain

Accept "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" only. Each unbroken package contains proper directions. Handy boxes of twelve tablets cost 25 cents. Druggists also sell bottles of 24 and 100. Aspirin is the trade mark of Bayer Manufacture of Monocretin, eldest of Salicylic acid.

State Rules City Within Detroit Now

By NEA Service

Hamtramck, Mich., March 21.—They are going to try to dry up Hamtramck, probably America's wettest city.

Prohibition? Oh yes, people have heard a lot about it in this "city within a city."

But they don't think much of the idea.

Hamtramck is a city of 60,000—a separate municipality—within the city of Detroit. It has no railroad station, no hospitals, and no hotels.

It is made up principally of alien-born and children of alien-born.

Most of Hamtramck's people continue to live as they did in the old country. The city within Detroit has defied the 18th amendment. According to state police a Niagara of booze flows within its borders.

Police Chief Fugitive

Hamtramck's chief of police, Mark Berlinger, is a fugitive from justice. State police arrested him for violation of the dry law and locked him up in his own jail, but Berlinger's subordinates let him out when the troops turned their backs.

A policeman, state dry agents charge, is the "bootleg king" of the city, takes his orders over police station phones and often delivers the goods in a patrol wagon.

The mayor, Peter C. Jezewski, ordered by Governor Groesbeck to resign, dared the executive to throw him out.

The mayor promised the governor he would clean up the town. He did. He ordered the street department, not the police, to clean the streets. All the streets and alleys were made spic and span.

can now, if they desire, demand their taxes back again is a question.

Bond Issue

The state bond issue amendment was regarded as important only to those desiring state farm loans, for it increased the time of maturity of bond issues for the real estate loans of the Bank of North Dakota to a straight 39 years, the same number of years as in the loans which are amortized in 30 years under the original idea of the law. However, it was found that the constitution provided the bonds could be issued 30 years from the time of passage of the amendment, which was 1919, so that at present bonds and loans can run only for a period of 25 years.

The county officials amendment got a surprising vote against it, presumably because voters did not know its provisions. It provided that in counties of less than 6,000 population, and it was proposed especially for Billings county, probably the only county that ever will be affected by it, that the county clerk and county judge should be one office. It would save the taxpayers the two salaries and expense of two offices where the work is light.

NOTICE AND CITATION, HEARING OF FINAL ACCOUNT AND DISTRIBUTION OF ESTATE

STATE OF NORTH DAKOTA, County of Burleigh—ss.

In County Court, Before Hon. I. C. Davies, Judge.

In the Matter of the Estate of Susan I. Spear, Deceased.

S. Luella Spear, Petitioner, vs. Cheever A. Spear and Blanche M. Spear, Respondents.

The State of North Dakota to the Above Named Respondents:

You, the said Cheever A. Spear and Blanche M. Spear, are hereby notified that the final account of the Execution of the Estate of Susan I. Spear, late of the City of Colman in the County of Moody, and State of North Dakota, deceased, has been rendered to this Court, therein showing that the estate of said deceased is ready for final settlement and distribution, and petitioning that his account be allowed, the residue of said estate be distributed to the persons thereunto entitled, her administration closed and she be discharged; that Tuesday, the 15th day of April A. D. 1924, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day in the Court rooms of this Court in the County of Burleigh, and State of North Dakota, has been duly appointed by this Court for the settlement thereof, at which time and place any person interested in said estate may appear and file his exceptions, in writing, to said account, and petition and contest the same.

And you, the above named respondents, and each of you, are hereby cited and required then and there to be and appear before this Court, and show cause, if any you have, why said account should not be allowed, the residue of said estate distributed, the administration of said estate closed and said Executrix be discharged.

Dated the 29th day of February, A. D. 1924.

By the Court: (SEAL)

I. C. DAVIES, Judge of the County Court.

Let the foregoing citation be served by publication in the Bismarck Tribune, each week for four successive weeks, all not less than ten days before said hearing.

BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT IS OPENED

Play Begins at Valley City This Afternoon For The State Championship

EXPECT BIG CROWDS

Valley City, N. D., March 21.—The North Dakota state high school basketball tournament opened here today with eight district champions entering in the competition. Fargo, Valley City and Mandan are the favorites in the tournament, with the latter two being the strongest contenders for state honors. The first game, between Fargo and Valley City, will play at 8:30 p. m. The drawings were made here at 11 a. m. today by officials of the state organization.

Valley City, N. D., March 21.—The North Dakota state high school basketball tournament opened here today with eight district champions entering in the competition. Fargo, Valley City and Mandan are the favorites in the tournament, with the latter two being the strongest contenders for state honors. The first game, between Fargo and Valley City, will play at 8:30 p. m. The drawings were made here at 11 a. m. today by officials of the state organization.

Big crowds were expected at all games, which will be played in the teachers college gymnasium. Local hotels and cafes were making arrangements to handle large crowds.

The teams to fight it out for the state title represent high schools as follows: Fargo, Grand Forks, Mandan, Dickinson, Valley City, Bismarck, Devils Lake, Minn. The games are scheduled as follows: Friday, afternoon, 2:30 p. m. and 5:30 p. m. Friday evening, 7:00 p. m. and 8:30 p. m. Saturday morning, 10 a. m. and 11 a. m. Saturday evening, 7:30 p. m. and 8:30 p. m. The game at 7:30 Saturday evening will be between the two teams which are eliminated in the semi-final rounds Saturday morning. The final game will commence immediately afterwards.

Expect Big Crowds
The Valley City State Teachers College is preparing for the biggest State Basketball tournament ever held in the State of North Dakota. Nothing has been spared to make this tournament the most successful in the state's history. The new gymnasium is well equipped to the care of the competing teams. The seating of the gymnasium is arranged to hold a crowd of fifteen hundred people.

Detailed accounts of the evening games will be broadcasted from the North Dakota Agricultural College. Those people who are interested in the tournament will be able to get accounts of the games by tuning in at seven-thirty, Friday and Saturday evenings.

The winning school will be awarded a beautiful silver basketball trophy and members of the winning team will receive gold watch fobs. The presentation of the awards will take place following the final game. After this, a banquet will be given for the competing teams and coaches, by the Valley City Commercial Club at the Rialto Hotel.

The tournament managers have selected Lloyd E. Eyer of Bloomington, Illinois, and Howard V. Millard of Decatur, Illinois. Both men have grown up with the game and have had a great deal of experience in this line of work. Both men are Big Ten Officials. These men can be relied on to give the best there is in the refereeing game.

Community Affairs
The Community entertainment and dance given on March 17, at Moffit, N. D., for the benefit of the local baseball team was a great success. A large crowd was present and a net sum of $50 was raised to help finance the team.

Following the entertainment a successful dance was held after which an excellent supper was served by the ladies of Moffit. About 150 plates were served. Music for the dance was furnished by the Moffit Band. Trio, assisted by Dutton, Smith and Gault of Bismarck who relieved the local boys occasionally. A large number were present from Steinfeld, Bismarck and neighboring towns and a splendid evening's entertainment was enjoyed by all. The program and arrangements were under the direction of Mrs. H. P. A. Selvington following is the program given preceding the dance:
